

RAE ABRAHAM SUCCUMBS AFTER FOUR-DAY ILLNESS

Miss Rae Madge Abraham, age 18 daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Abraham, 2422 East Third street, died early yesterday afternoon at her home from a four-day illness.

Miss Abraham, who had been a junior student at Central high school, was obliged to give up her school work last spring on account of ill health, but she had been improving and her illness Sunday was unexpected.

Funeral services will be held from the residence at 2 p. m. tomorrow, although all arrangements have not been completed. J. L. Crawford, undertaker, is in charge.

Miss Abraham was well known among the young people of the city. Her parents and a younger sister, Miss Virginia Abraham, survive her.
