I did not know Terry at Heights. No memory of him. Based on what I found I wish I had. There was no published obit. He was married and had a child. He lived in the same modest but not inexpensive home in Duluth, Mn. for years which was sold in 2020. Just talked to a family member and found out Terry was estranged from most of his family...hence no obit....what a strange journey life can be for some.

He was a Marine Vietnam Veteran and is burried in the Minnesota State Veteran's Cemetery. God Bless him.

I wish I had known him. He was one of us. He did the "right thing" and I hope his eternity is what he wants and needs.

I remember the face, but I didn't know him and actually knew very few in the class. RIP! May your memory be a blessing.

Didn't know he noticed he served in Viet Nam I was one of the lucky ones never got orders to go to Nam we lost a few classmates over there. Terry made it home but I am sure it was with many scars might be the cause of his estrangement with his family but I know he is at peace now no more pain I also know that he and his family will reunite somewhere in our Heavenly Fathers Kingdom

Hope to meet you there Terry

I knew Terry. He was shy and kept to himself mostly but he was a good friend. Rest In Peace, Terry.
