Ralph E. Cohen, a resident of Ivyland, died Saturday, July 21, 2012. He was 82.

Ralph was born in Philadelphia, to Herman and Claire Rabinowitz Cohen.

He met his future wife, Joyce Berman, at Temple University in 1948. He was drafted in the U.S. Army in 1951. He and Joyce were married in October of 1951 when they knew he was being sent overseas. He then spent a solitary honeymoon in Yokohama, Japan on the Adjutant General's administrative staff.

On his return home in April of 1953, he pursued several occupations, grocer, vending machine company owner, Director of Special Projects for Food Fair Stores, and owner of a travel agency.

His two sons and their families were a constant joy, Herb and Sandi Kornstein and their daughter, Victoria; Ken and Nicole Kornstein and their children, Max and Hanna.

The family remembers his many interests. He shared his love of fresh water fishing with his sons and grandson at Idle Acres. His hobbies were photography, stain glass and woodworking. Ralph enjoyed teaching woodcrafts to many after school and summer classes in the Centennial and Council Rock School Districts.

As the eldest brother, he will be missed by his siblings and their families, Evelyn Weiner (Jerry), Burton (Hollis), and Annette Yellin (Louis). He was a loving husband and father. He will be fondly remembered by many friends and neighbors.
