

$64,000 Value of Estate Left by Aaron Fieldman

Aaron Fieldman, pioneer West End merchant, who died Sept. 9, age 58, left an estate valued at $64,000, according to petition for probate of the will filed in probate court yesterday. The will bequeaths the property to the widow, Nesa Fieldman, during her life estate and then to be divided equally among the five children. They are David, Israel, Esther, Edith and Ida Solon all of Duluth. The petition places the value of $30,850 on personal property and $33,250 on real estate.
