
TAILOR DIES FOLLOWING EXPLOSION OF GASOLINE

DICKINSON, N. D., July 27.—As a result of a gasoline explosion, caused by lighting a match while cleaning clothes in his tailor shop, Abraham [Name] is dead. The deceased was 37 years of age. He formerly lived in Fargo and has a brother in Milwaukee and a sister, Mrs. Henry [Name], at Madison, Minn. Remains taken today to Fargo for burial in the Jewish cemetery.
