Obituary for Marvin J. Greenblat

Marvin Jay Greenblat, age 92 passed away April 10, 2021 at home in his Marvin the Martian T-shirt. He is survived by his loving wife of 67+ years, Doreen; children, William (Lynn), David (Lori), Rick (Elizabeth), grandchildren, Naomi (Lane), Moriah (Phil), Elijah, Jacob; sister, Anita (Arthur) Nemoj and special niece Diane Gold. Close friends, Steven and Bernadette Waisbren, Willy and Ari, plus, many relatives and friends. Preceded in death by parents, Gertrude and Morris Greenblat, son, Steven and brother, Sidney. Marvin lived a rich and full life, always running with his sidekick Doreen. Whether he was helping with catering, working in the kitchen at the synagogue, playing cards, tennis or fishing, he was enjoying his time with others. Nothing brought more joy to his heart than his grandchildren. They along with Doreen were the true loves in his life. He was a proud zayde; he also cherished his time at the JCC and at services at Bet Shalom. Marvin was a man of few words; his quick wit and sense of humor were just a few of his great traits. He had a big heart for taking people in and will be missed by so many. Marvin was an Army veteran, thanks to the VA, Sholom Home Hospice care and Care A Parent for making his last day as comfortable for all of us as possible. Zoom funeral service, 2:00 pm TUESDAY April 13th and Zoom SHIVA, 7:00pm Tuesday and Wednesday. For link email zoom2@hodroffepstein.com for the link. Memorials to Bet Shalom Congregation or BOND with Minneapolis/St. Paul Jewish Family & Children's Service.
