GROPPER — Nathan Frank died suddenly on June 17, 1996, three weeks before his 82nd birthday. Born July 7, 1914 in Saskatoon, SK, he attended Dental College at McGill University, graduating in 1936. He practised dentistry in Saskatoon from then until 1974. Married Zora in 1939, they moved to Vancouver in 1974 where Dr. Gropper continued to practice dentistry until 1990. He was an active and ardent builder of the Saskatoon Jewish Community. He enjoyed his family, his friends and his golf. His wife of 57 years, Zora, four children: Mitchell (Lynne), Peter (Marla), Risa Levine (Bill) and Miriam (David Whiteley), sisters, Pearl Adlman, Rose Aiken and Bea Goldberg (predeceased by sister, Tillie), and nine grandchildren, Daniel Gropper (Tamara), Sarah Levine, Naomi Gropper, Anna Levine, Lauren Gropper, Alexis Gropper, Aaron Gropper, Fanny Whiteley and Sam Whiteley will miss a very active, loving, out-going, caring and principled husband, father, brother and grandfather. Funeral Services at Beth Israel Cemetery, 1721 Willingdon Avenue, Burnaby, British Columbia, June 19, 1996 at 12:00 noon. Shiva 8:00 p.m. evenings at home.
