Obituary for Marian Rose Halpern

Marian Rose Halpern

Age 91 of Edina passed away peacefully on November 27, 2011. She was born on July 22, 1920 in Minneapolis, the daughter of Ben and Frances Nathanson. Marian was a loving wife, caring mother, devoted grandparent, and loyal friend. Throughout her life, she was generous and giving to community and family. She served as PTA President of Audubon Elementary School and Southwest High School, and for many years was co-leader of both her daughter's Girl Scout troops. She volunteered and worked for the Minneapolis Girl Scout Council, and she was employed by Methodist Hospital in their Medical Records Department. Marian was an excellent golfer and bridge player, and enjoyed sharing her interest in sports (especially the Twins) with her son, Tom. She lived independently until her passing. She is survived by her children, Peggy, Tom (Pam), Connie (Jon); grandchildren, Dan (Theresa), Heidi (Brian), Andy (Elaine) and Nick; great-grandchildren, Hannah, Jacob, Olivia and Aubrey; cousins, nieces and nephews. Marian was preceded in death by her husband, Chester; her brother, Donald; and her sister, Dorothy. Funeral service WEDNESDAY, 11:00AM, TEMPLE ISRAEL, 2324 Emerson Ave. S., Mpls. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions to Marian's charity: Children's Cancer Research Fund, or a charity of your choice. SHIVA: 5501 Dewey Hill Rd., Apt. 340, Edina (Wed. and Thurs. 7PM).
