

THREE FUNERALS IN TWO DAYS AMONG VIRGINIANS

VIRGINIA, Jan. 27.—Funeral services were held today for the late Peter Egan at the Leslie undertaking parlors, the Rev. Fr. O'Brien officiating. Interment was in Calvary cemetery. A daughter, Mrs. Lucille Bailey of Duluth, was here for the rites. Deceased had lived here for some years. This morning the body of the late Sam Lippman, prominent Virginia merchant, was taken to Duluth, where interment was made in the Jewish cemetery. Brief ceremonies were held here early at B'nai Abraham synagogue and were attended by friends from many range points, many of whom accompanied the body to Duluth.

Tomorrow morning services will be held from the Leslie undertaking rooms for James McLeod, woodsman, with interment to follow in Greenwood cemetery. Mrs. W. R. Kuhne, a sister, has been located at Bay City, Mich.
