Obituary for Bryan Irving Mintz

Bryan Irving Mintz, age 66 of Phoenix, AZ - formerly of St. Paul, MN. Passed away unexpectedly on November 11, 2021. Preceded in death by his father Albert Mintz. Survived by his mother, Rose Mintz; brothers, Douglas (Lynette) Mintz and Bradley Mintz; sister, Hannah (Douglas) Huberty; nieces, Courtney (Justin) Wallander and Melanie Huberty; nephew, Alex King; great niece, Madison Wallander; aunt, Marge Volk and many loving cousins and friends.

Bryan was born in St. Paul. He grew up in Highland Park. Bryan was an exceptionally talented violinist, performing at special events all over the Twin Cities for 50 years. He was a featured performer for 6 years at Murray's Steakhouse. He also relished sharing the talents of his many colleagues with the entire Mintz clan over the years at all kinds of family celebrations. Bryan owned several businesses over his short lifetime: Aquatic Butler, Worldwide Tire, Mac-ania and Big Al's Liquidation. He was also a successful independent collections agent. That work led him to a Phoenix, Arizona relocation. Bryan had the gift of listening, empathizing, and helping people, whether they were clients, family, or close friends. Although Bryan had no children, he was a loving parent to many pets; his birds Sam and Caesar, his last two dogs Brandy and Beauty, and of course his famous monkey, Rudy. Bryan was incredibly personable and passionate. He was a self-made and self-driven man. And very much like his father Albert (though with a slightly different flair), Bryan too marched to the beat of his own drum. Funeral service 10:30am SUNDAY November 21st at HODROFF-EPSTEIN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 671 Snelling Ave. So., St. Paul. Service is also available on zoom. Email zoom3@hodroffepstein.com for link. In lieu of flowers donations are preferred to Secondhand Hounds

SHIVA, Sunday and Monday 7 pm at Osceola Place, 260 Osceola Ave. So., St Paul 55102.
