

LAKE BREEZES

Good Printing—Northland Printery.

Will Inspect Roads.

The county commissioners John Sundeen, Charles Kauppi, E. M. Patterson, Neil McInnis and Capt. Morcum will meet Thursday morning at Tower from where they will go to Ely, inspecting roads. From Ely they will go to the White Iron river about nine miles away to inspect a new steel bridge which was built this summer by the commissioners.

Wants Raise of $5.

Relative to the raise in wages asked for the members of the Fire Department, Chief Black desires to have it known that he suggested to the fire board the advisability of raising the general wages of the men $5 per month. The communication which was brought to the attention of the city council Monday evening, and which asked for a raise of $2.50 per month, was not made by Chief Black but rather by the fire board.

Returns From East.

A. M. Chisholm returned yesterday from a business trip in the east. He timed his arrival so as to be home to vote. Mr. Chisholm says that great excitement over the election prevailed in New York and other eastern states.

Case Is Postponed.

The Diamond Match company case against the Union Match company in the United States district court for the infringement of certain patent rights was postponed until Nov. 20 by Judge Morris yesterday. The continuance was made at the request of the defendants on account of the illness of one of the attorneys in the case.

Edward Oswald's Funeral.

The funeral of Edward Oswald, who committed suicide Sunday night by taking carbolic acid while in his room at the Metropole hotel, was held yesterday afternoon from the undertaking establishment of Durkan & Crawford. Interment was at the Jewish cemetery. A large number of friends who had known the man about town for many years attended the funeral.