

WIFE DIES AS HUSBAND, RECOVERS FROM OPERATION

In a room at St. Mary's hospital Israel Rosenberg, 311 East Third street, is slowly recovering from an operation which he underwent yesterday. Tomorrow—or as soon as he gains back enough strength to withstand the shock—he must be told that his wife died yesterday.

He was taken to the hospital several days ago. About 7 o'clock yesterday morning Mrs. Rosenberg was taken ill with influenza. Pneumonia set in within a few hours and she died before noon. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon.
