Clara Roth passed away on Tuesday, May 10, 2011, at Heritage Manor in Chisholm with her beloved son by her side.

Born in Chisholm Feb. 3, 1913, Clara graduated from Chisholm High School and later, Denver University. She began her teaching career with stops in San Diego, Calif. and Benton Harbor, Mich. Clara taught in Virginia at the Horace Mann and Washington Elementary Schools for more than 20 years. Upon retirement, she returned to her Roth family residence in Chisholm.

She lived a very private, frugal life. Clara owned and operated the former Roth Liquor Store in Chisholm, and later became a caretaker for her parents and sister. For enjoyment, she baked bread with her mother and sister, loved hanging clothes out on the line, raking leaves, gardening and cleaning the whole house. Clara enjoyed working. But her favorite thing was mothering. Mother's Day was named for her. For about 60 years, Clara provided shelter, food, and advice for her son. Some of her favorite quotes were: "Put a hat on, you'll catch a cold," "Wash your hands, there's a lot of germs out there," "Eat your vegetables, they're good for you," and "Watch the road, there's a lot of crazy drivers out there."

She is survived by her "good" son, Marshall "Mo ´she" Roth Pearlman.

Clara was preceded in death by her parents, Jennie and Ben Roth; her sister and best friend, Helen F. Roth; the Louis Roth family of Hibbing; and countless friends, neighbors, and former students.

Burial will be with her family in the Roth Plot of the Range Hebrew Cemetery in Virginia
