Obituary

Harold William Segal 1940-2020

Harold or "Hal" as his friends called him, was born in Duluth, Minnesota to Eva and Rudy Segal on April 12, 1940. He also had an older sister named, Esther, now deceased. He attended East High School and then graduated from the University of Minnesota, UMD.

From an early age, Hal had a powerful singing voice, and entertained the family with his favorite song, "Ghost Riders In The Sky." Later, he was part of a folk singing group and performed in Coffee Houses in and around college towns. He joined the Navy and became a career officer for over 20 years. He served as the Lieutenant Commander on many large ships during his military career. As a retired Naval Officer, he was a man of many interests, including folk music, cooking, politics and collecting Asian art and antiques. He was married to Elaine Lipinsky, now deceased. They have three surviving children, Diane Zeps, Kamaya Jane Cohen and Nathan Segal. He is also survived by three grandchildren, Yaryn Shraga, Grant Zeps, Kate Zeps.
