

SON OF MAX SHATIRO DIES OF PNEUMONIA

---

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

EVELETH, May 1.—William Shatiro aged 8 years, son of Max Shatiro, a prominent merchant of this city, died this morning of pneumonia. The body will be taken to Duluth for interment tomorrow. The little fellow had been ill only a short time and the parents are grief-stricken over their loss.