

MRS. AARON ZIEGEL AND CHILDREN DROWNED IN ST. LOUIS RIVER TODAY

Superior, Wis., Aug. 13.—Seven members of a launch party were thrown into the water when a swell from a passing tug caused the boat to pitch up and down, were reported missing at noon. All are residents of Superior, with one exception, and members of two families.

Twenty-three were in the launch party, including Matt Siegel of Fargo, N. D. All but a few of the passengers were sitting on the roof of the launch on a pleasure ride up the St. Louis river, and they were hurled into the water by a tossing boat.

Matt Siegel of Fargo, one of the rescued members of the party, is a brother-in-law of Max Rabinovich of this city. Mrs. Aaron Siegel and three daughters of Superior, Wis., Mrs. Louis Lasky and daughter, Nettie, also of Superior, and Miss Clara Goldstein of Minneapolis were all drowned. Mrs. Aaron Siegel, wife of Mr. Rabinovich's brother-in-law, and children have visited in this city a number of times, and are well known here. Fourteen were thrown in the water, and seven of them were saved.
