

LAKE BREEZES.

North Land Printery, Torrey Bldg.
J. A. Gallard of the Winona Normal school will lecture at the high school auditorium at eleven o'clock Friday forenoon before the summer school. He is at the head of the department of physiology and pedagogy at Winona. The lecture will be free to the public. "Parlor Theater." Big specialty company.

Up to the present time twenty-one Republicans have filed with the county auditor their certificates of nomination for numerous county offices, the last two being Neil McInnis, who desires a re-nomination for county commissioner of the Sixth district, and George H. Schulenberg, who is after the nomination for commissioner from the Second district. So far Democrats have been a little shy, and not one has filed his affidavit. They have until August 25 to do so, however, so there is plenty of time.

Zenith City Dye Works, 6 E. Sup. St. Best work in the city. Both phones.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to H. M. Schwartz and Anna Beuckler, Edward S. Sawyer and Ida Elizabeth Acker, T. A. Smeed and Harriet E. Cameron and Robert Brock and Adelaide Everett.

For a quick drink for the business man, see De Witt, at Boyce's fountain.

Second citizenship papers were taken out yesterday by G. A. Smith, a former subject of the king of Great Britain, and John F. Johnson and Emil Norlund, Russians.

For sheriff, J. T. Armstead.

The body of George Sternberg, who was drowned in Silver lake, near Virginia, will be interred this afternoon in the local Hebrew cemetery.

"Parlor Theater." Top line attractions.

James Gayley, first vice president of the U. S. Steel corporation, and a party of seven officials of the company, will arrive this morning to witness the launching of the new carrier Hoyt at the Superior shipyards this afternoon.

Visitors who are interested in a nice line of hardware do not pass the Northern Hardware company.

The flour mills at the head of the lake broke all previous records last week. The total number of barrels of flour milled was 45,565, 3,455 barrels in excess of the biggest output in weeks past. Shipping was on the increase last week also, and during that period 8,550 barrels were exported; while 17,570 were consumed by domestic trade. At the close of the week, 28,410 barrels were yet in the stock-sheds. During the same interval the railroads received 152,000 barrels, shipped 142,000, and were left with a stock of 177,000 on hand.

The Silberstein & Bondy company offer today many very striking values throughout their store which will undoubtedly interest many intending purchasers.

Captain J. W. Wallace, of this city, has been designated by Governor Van Sant as a delegate to the Butte, Mont., Mining congress, which will be held in September. P. Mitchell, John A. Redfern and A. P. Stillman of Hibbing have also been selected.

Dance O-at-ka Auditorium tonight.

The Barbour Theater company, presenting "A Wife's Honor," pleased a large audience at Moon Bros.' theater last night. "A Wife's Honor," a four-act comedy drama, will be repeated tonight with an entire change of specialties.

Finer than champagne: Weiss Beer.

James E. Kellogg, of Two Harbors, is the first Democratic candidate for the legislature to file his papers with the secretary of state. Mr. Kellogg yesterday filed as a candidate for representative from the 51st district.

For sheriff—J. T. Armstead.

The meeting of the Duluth Commercial club which was announced for last evening was postponed indefinitely.

for several important reasons, one of which was that the committee on statistics tabulating the average wage paid and the cost of living in Duluth, as compared with other cities, was not ready to report. The committee of investigation with regard to the Park Point reservation scheme also announced itself unprepared to report. "Parlor Theater." All new features tonight.

The Women's Relief Corps, the auxiliary to the Grand Army, will give a calcium card party tomorrow night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Jenswold, at Lester Park. In case the weather is inclement, the function will be held in the pavilion at Lester. Many entertainments given by the W. R. C. in the past have all proved unqualified sources of enjoyment, and this one is expected to be fully up to the standard.

George Sternberg obit