

DEGREE FOR DROWNED STUDENT

Hibbing, Aug. 29.—(Special.)—In the list of 53 students who received degrees from the University of Minnesota at the conclusion of the first term of summer session, and which was made public this week, appears the name of Morris Wolfe, who was drowned at Day lake, shortly after his return to Hibbing from the university.