

THE CITY NEWS.

The street gas lamps have arrived.

Work on the new village directory is nearly finished.

The Western Union telegraph office was closed again last night.

Peck & Son's saw mill has been shut down for a time for lack of logs.

The stores and nearly all the rooms in the opera house block are rented.

General satisfaction is expressed with the location of the street gas lamps.

The propeller Manistee will remain in this port several days undergoing repairs.

Thirty-five Bayfield people were in town yesterday, coming up on the Manistee.

A thirteen-year-old son of Simon Ward, of Minnesota Point, died Thursday night.

Taxes collected by the county treasurer since the 5th of July amount to $1,546.41.

A street gang of four prisoners worked on the grade of Third avenue west yesterday.

The last crop reports from Dakota are more encouraging than they have been of late.

A Scandinavian firm are building a grocery store on East Third street near Seventh avenue.

The building of the second track between the St. P. & D. freight office and depot is resumed.

Persons returning from Fargo and Winnipeg report that the former is dull and the latter duller.

Yesterday a child was run over by a delivery wagon on Second street, but was not much injured.

It is daily expected that Duluth will receive her eastern mail from Chicago via the Omaha road and Superior.

In another place this morning Jos. Silberstein advertises business suits made to order for $28. Joe means business.

Regular Vermillion mail now leaves this city every Monday morning. It is carried by packers there being no contractors at present.

Rev. C. S. Starkweather will leave Superior and locate in Eau Claire. Rev. Mr. Slade will succeed him in the village over the bay.

The gas and water works company is now employing a construction force of 325 men, whose wages amount to over $5,000 every two weeks.

The small boys stuck to the white currant bushes around Mrs. Selby's burning house until the roof fell in. The boy on the burning deck was "nowhere."

H. A. Campbell has rented both stores of the Burg and Kugler block East Superior street, and will stock it with groceries, provisions, flour and feed.

Yesterday Leddell & Carpenter moved their produce commission store from First avenue west to Harry Stewart's re-fitted blacksmith shop on West Superior street.

On the fourth floor of the opera house block is a 26x40-foot room in the dome, which is not yet rented. There is some speculation as what will be done with it.

In the police court yesterday Wm. Armstrong, drunk, was sent up for ten days. John Davis and Ed. Donaldson, both drunks, were discharged on their promise to leave town by the next train.

Yesterday Probate Judge Dunphy issued a warrant to appraisers in the matter of the estate of August Rehbehn, deceased. The appraisers are D. Schutte and S. D. Davis, of Ramsey county, in which the estate is located.

The Herald reports that Henry Bell, of Bell & Eyster, bankers, was shot at by a tramp while driving in his carriage Wednesday evening. The tramp ordered him to stop, and fired when the order was not obeyed.

Last evening little Eddie Silberstein gave a party at his father's residence on Second street in celebration of the tenth anniversary of his birth day. Thirty-five children, boys and girls, were present, and if little folks ever had a good time these had last night.

After games out of doors there was dancing in the parlors, and then lots of good things to eat.

Yesterday Sebania Kippa, a Russian Finlander, twenty-three years of age, applied to the clerk of the court for first papers of citizenship. After getting them he asked for and procured a marriage license, by virtue of which he will become the proud husband of Mrs. Kristina Trunva, a widow of Fond du Lac, thirty-four years old, owner of a farm, and mother of six children, four of whom are yet living. Kippa probably thinks the farm is worth it.

Last winter a man who was known as Col. McCann worked in this city for J. L. Fox, of St. Paul, in putting in steam heating fixtures, etc. He seduced a young Swede girl who worked at the Windsor hotel, and who has lately given birth to a child at the poor house. Yesterday W. C. Sprague, of St. Paul, McCann's attorney, was in this city making an effort to settle the affair with the girl. It is said that he succeeded in doing so in consideration of the sum of fifty dollars paid to the girl.

Yesterday Sheriff McQuade took possession of the goods of Mr. Landry, proprietor of the Grand Central variety theater, under a writ of attachment sworn out by S. Levy, the wholesale liquor dealer of this city, who is his creditor to the amount of $164. It is said that he also owes M. Fink and Decker Bros. considerable sums for beer purchased. The actors of his company complain that they have been unable to draw their wages for some time. It is possible that the affairs will be settled, and that the Central reopen before long.