

From Sunday Morning's Daily.

The bicycle exhibition drew a good crowd at the Parlor rink last night.

No. 1 hard wheat took a tumble to 69½ cents in this market yesterday.

Yesterday the roof was put on Dr. Conan's block, next to the Metropolitan.

It is reported that Vermillion Lake is frozen over so solidly that teams can cross on the ice.

Neither republicans nor democrats seem at all inclined to take down their banners that fly over Superior street.

Yesterday a report was in circulation that Jay Gould was shot and killed. Its origin was not known and nobody credited it.

It was the prevailing opinion about town yesterday that the result of the election will not be known until the official returns are received.

Last night Geo. Johnson gave a fine bicycle exhibition at the Parlor rink, which will be closed for the next two weeks to undergo repairs for the winter season.

A child of C. F. Fleischman was buried in Ray's old burying ground about seven years ago. Yesterday the remains were taken up and interred in the Catholic cemetery.

People should not think that John A. Noble is the one who is to be examined for rape—for he is decidedly not that kind of a man. The prisoner is Wm. A. Noble.

A double team attached to a heavy wagon ran into S. Levy's horse and carriage yesterday morning on East Superior street, overturning Mrs. Levy and the two children, besides the driver. The driver of the double team was arrested and fined in police court in the afternoon.

H. L. Erhardt, one of the proprietors of the Duluth Variety, will have a grand benefit on the 22nd at that popular place of amusement. Already a large number of tickets have been disposed of. The management promises one of the best shows ever given in Duluth at any theater.

Yesterday it leaked out that John Preston sold the Windsor hotel to Peter Gullingsrud, from Neilsville, Wis., and that the latter took possession of the house one week ago yesterday. He is said to be a man of hotel experience and fully capable of making the Windsor a more popular house than ever. Mr. Preston will remain in Duluth a few weeks, and will then move with his wife to Neilsville, where they will live upon a farm.

Yesterday's receipts of wheat were about 125,000 bushels. The shipments were 50,000 bushels on the schooner Niagara. The total shipments of the past week were 530,495 bushels in nine cargoes as follows: Barge Hope 75,500, schooner Minnehaha 52,600, barge Hecla 52,695, barge Wallula 68,400, barge Spencer 59,000, propeller St. Magnus 28,000, barge Kasota 65,400, schooner Niagara 50,000. There are no boats to land today.