

Business Changes.

Just at this time a number of Duluth firms are changing their membership or their location.

The partnership announced between John T. Condon and Frank Laxer has fallen through, owing to a misunderstanding in regard to money matters. This, however, will not interfere with Mr. Condon's intention to move into the Opera house block, and he will occupy the Jackson store about February 1. The room he now has will be used by the St. Louis hotel.

As will be seen by the communication published elsewhere, the firm of Fremuth & Abeles has been dissolved, the Abeles brothers remaining. Mr. D. C. Abeles will remain in Duluth. Mr. M. B. Abeles contemplates a visit to relatives in Europe.

E. H. Oswald & Co. will move this week to new quarters in the Hol & Fyster bank building, where they will do a strictly wholesale business. It is announced that J. A. Maenhelm will occupy the Jumbo as a real estate office.
