BREVITIES.

First papers issued yesterday to Niels Peter Johnson.

Marriage license: Peter Olson to Hedda Lovisa Amelia Carlson.

Work on the gas fitting was begun in the Spalding House yesterday.

Only one drunk was turned in by the police canvass of the town last night.

M. A. Hays addresses West End Republicans tomorrow evening at the grand rally.

The "Palladio" is the name of the new building to be erected on the Bay View corner.

The St. Paul & Duluth Short line trains across the bay via Grassy Point will soon commence running.

The members of the First M. E. Church sent out invitations yesterday to the arbutus fete to be given tonight.

Dr. Barrett, W. E. Shepherd, Dr. Alden and J. H. James represented the Vermilion range at "She" last evening.

John O'Neal, drunk, paid, and Sam. J. Totten, vagrant, committed, scored the business of the municipal court yesterday.

J. P. Donner and John Ryan, of Minneapolis, who is backed by Killen, will fight ten rounds at the Duluth theater tonight.

The Y. M. C. A. is deliberating upon erecting a boat club house this summer. Look out for a big membership in such an event.

A decorative art needle-work reception will be given at the Domestic sewing machine rooms for several successive days, beginning next Tuesday.

The Inman line tug Cora B took her first trip around the harbor yesterday afternoon. She has received a much better overhauling than last spring, and is consequently in much better shape than last season.

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that the steamer City of Fremont will leave Duluth (ice and weather permitting) at 8 p. m. Saturday next, for Houghton and Hancock and intermediate south shore ports.

A good attendance considering the weather was witnessed at the dance in Kennedy's hall last evening for the benefit of the West End brass band. Lunch was served, and an enjoyable social evening was observed by all present.

The Young People's society of the First Presbyterian church will give a social at the church this evening. Refreshments will be served, a musical program will be rendered and a good time generally is expected. Admission is free and everyone is invited.

Though the night was unpropitious about twenty couples attended the second grand ball of the Tray club, given at Ingalls' hall last evening. The twenty-four dances were carried successfully. But for the inclement weather it is probable 100 couples would have turned out.

McFarlane & Anson have moved into the O'Brien & Knowlton building, and Heller & Loeb will move in on Monday. There are still two nice stores for either wholesale or retail purposes unengaged. The two middle floors are being made into private rooms, while the top story will be converted into a hall for Co. K.

An Omaha road engine which is being used as a switcher, ran off the track on the trestle at the point where the switch running into the Omaha dock joins the main track. The engine was backing down, and instead of turning the curve, attempted to take a short cut across the swamp. A Northern Pacific engine was used in getting it on again. The escape was a very narrow one from causing a total wreck.
