

The Evil Doer.

Edward Dyer was brought before Judge Jaques yesterday, charged with assault upon Isaac L. Cook, the complaining witness. The evidence was such as to cause the justice to discharge the prisoner and compel Cook to pay the costs. Wm. Hubbard was also brought up on a charge of assault upon John McNeice. He is was found to be innocent, and a warrant was issued for the arrest of McNeice, who had commenced the fracas by assaulting Hubbard.

The case of Elwin Johnson, who sold a horse on which there was a chattel mortgage, was adjourned. Israel Lefleno was committed for leaving his horse unhitched.
