

PERSONAL MENTION.

Registered at the Spalding are H W Smith, Detroit, E. A. Mears, Fargo, J L Krueger, J A. Smith, Will H. Tins, H A Haugan and wife, Chicago A V Dauphin, Minneapolis, J C Crawford, Green Bay, Charles Hurd, Ann Arbor, E. A. Faulhaber, St Paul.

E. Pattison and Captain McDougall and the latter's two boys returned yesterday from a two days fishing trip on the Broke. They report a splendid time and lots of fish. Besides what they consumed, they brought home thirty pounds of beautiful trout.

The families of Messrs. Silberstein & Bondt, who have been stopping at their summer cottage on Park Point, moved into the city last week. They are delighted with the beach as a summer home and propose to continue to move there each summer.

Miss Florence Silberstein has returned from a six weeks visit to Chicago. While there she was the guest of Mr A. F. Leopold, a former resident of this city. She joined her father in Chicago on his way home from a four weeks' trip East.

At the St. Louis W C Corgill, Cambridge, F W Wiltse, Rockford, J A Ritchie, St Paul P H Krumler and wife, Cincinnati, John T Dickinson, Texas, Ira B Closs, Chicago, A H Cole, Minneapolis.

Miss Nannie Bates, daughter of Ticket Agent A S Bates of the Great Northern, of Fargo, N D and Walter Thomas of the Fargo postoffice are visiting Attorney Ball of this city.

At the Merchants P M Agnew, Chippewa Falls, Geo W Wilcox, Aberdeen, Geo A. Patrick, Flat, H J Nelson, Tower.

Neil McLaughlin, the real estate man, is building retaining walls for a drive from Third street and Sixth avenue west to the location of his new residence.

A L. Moody, a prominent dry goods merchant of Fargo, N D, accompanied by his wife, is in the city. Mr. Moody will probably settle in this city.

Misses Hattie and Alice Corbishley, Josephine and Lou Hendricks and Clark Bacon, of Port Huron, are guests of M. Douglas.

Misses Dama and Jessie Gray returned Thursday morning from Michigan and will begin school teaching next Tuesday.

Miss Nellie Clute, principal of the Jackson school, has returned from St. Cloud, where she has been spending her vacation.

Miss Susie Corroft of Madison, Wis., is visiting Prof and Mrs H. B. Doane at their home, No 13 West Second street.

Miss Lou Snyder of Fargo passed through the city yesterday on her way to Oskosh, where she will attend school.

Mr Meyers, of the firm of Myers & Whipple, returned from Port Arthur yesterday after an absence of three days.

S. E. Brown, of the Huntress & Brown Lumber company, has gone up on the Iron Range for a few days.

Perky Johnson, J D La Vague and W. T. Rorback returned yesterday from a fishing trip to Pike Lake.

R. N. Pollock, prominent attorney of Castleton, of N D, is in the city for a few days, on business.

Miss Annie McClements who has been spending her vacation in Chicago, has returned to the city.

Miss Jennie McKay and Miss Mamie McLachlan returned from a camping out party yesterday.

Mrs L. W. Spear and family left yesterday noon on the Eastern Minnesota for St Paul.

Ed Sundberg, the well known jeweler of Fargo, N. D., contemplates locating in Duluth.

C P Flatley, general Western agent of the D. S. S. & A., came up from St Paul last night.

Miss Lena Winslip of Minneapolis is spending the Sabbath with friends in the city.

Mr Itabilly of Auditor LaVague's office is spending a few days in St. Paul.

Miss Minnie Green of Fargo is visiting in the city.