

WEST DULUTH.

About Town

C. A. Everett is in St. Paul.

Fred Shepherd has returned to his home.

W. H. Kilian has opened his new bakery.

Joe Opperman has gone to Chicago to live.

J. M. Randolph, of Armour, S. D., is in the city.

William Spencer has returned from La Prairie.

Reeves & Peaslee have their new building about completed.

W. S. Lamson, of Roberts, Wis., is visiting with J. H. Howse.

Miss Jennie Oakes returned yesterday from a visit to Minneapolis.

James Vincent and T. W. Tait, of Roberts, are visiting in the city.

Fred Gould of Wheeling, Missouri, is visiting Prof. Frewin and family.

A. Fremuth is moving his stock of dry goods to the Hurst building.

The A. O. U. will give a reception at the city hall in the near future.

William Jamison of Portsmouth, New Hampshire, is looking over the city.

D. R. McKinley is talking of erecting a large hotel on Fourth street north.

We've set the town wild with those negligee shirts at $2. The Big Duluth.

The festival held at the Congregational church last night was a very successful affair.

Mrs. S. A. Shook, and daughter, of Omaha, are visiting at Mr. Bagley's, on Fourth avenue.

M. L. McMinn is setting out trees and otherwise improving his property on Bay View heights.

Albert Smith, cashier of the Montana National bank of Helena, is visiting his brother, H. P. Smith, of the Manufacturers' bank.

Mr. Swangie, who was injured yesterday, is resting easily considering the nature of his injuries, and Dr. Burnside says the chances for recovery are fair.