

BREVITIES.

Register today.

Nettie Jackson, a daughter of Andrew Jackson, of 1420 Bench street, is ill of diphtheria.

A daughter was born on January 7 to Charles and Mary McAuley of 1028 East Third street.

The altar boys of the Pro-Cathedral held their annual supper last evening at the episcopal residence.

The Wisconsin Central train was two hours late yesterday. The delay was owing to Eastern connections being behind time.

The entertainment by the turners of Duluth is to be given Thursday, January 14, not Wednesday as stated in yesterday's News.

Licenses to marry were issued yesterday to Archibald Campbell and Helen White and Christian Trautvetter and Lisette Roemer.

Miss Rosa Roos and Louis Aronheim were married Sunday at the residence of the bride's brother, Louis Roos of 309 East First street.

Mrs. Giles Gilbert will entertain this evening and has issued about 100 invitations. A tea will be given and later progressive euchre will be employed.

C. A. and Frank Parker and E. L. Whittington of this city have just received a patent on a safe loading apparatus, the first patent of the kind ever issued.

A permit was issued yesterday to Andrew Christianson for a house on Tenth street, between Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth avenues west, to cost $1,000.

Today is the first day of registration for the coming city election. All persons who did not vote at the recent special election must register in order to cast their ballots this spring.

The police are agitating the giving of their annual ball and a meeting will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the hall at headquarters to determine upon the date and make other preparations.

Detective Hayden was looking for a stolen coat in Superior yesterday. He did not find the one he was after but found one stolen from a man named Cook in Duluth on Christmas eve. It is "up" for $2 in Siegel Bros.' pawn shop.

The Cotillon club is going into the leap year business this year. The next party of the club will be given on Friday evening at the residence of Miss Munger, and the ladies will invite their partners and provide the carriages. A merry time is assured.

Collector Johnson went to St. Paul last evening where he is called as a witness in the case of Albertson & Chamberlain vs. Munger & Markell, an action brought to recover damages sustained by the falling of a building over four years ago.

A general meeting of the chamber of commerce to consider the Montreal excursion is to be held this morning at 10 o'clock. The formation of the Duluth Industrial union will also be completed at this time, and a general attendance is requested.

Certain recipients of invitations to the pink carnival ball of the Cliff Dwellers on Wednesday evening, expect that every one must dress in pink. This is not so, however, and the requirement only refers to members. Others may do as they please.

The Ladies' Literature class will be held this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Dr. Collins, corner of Third street and Fifth avenue east, not at Mrs. Spencer's, as stated by another paper. The subjects for discussion are Tennyson's "In Memoriam" and "Idyls of the King."

The Biwabic Iron company met yesterday morning and elected the following officers: Lon Merritt, president; E. G. Lapman, vice president; E. H. Hall, secretary and treasurer. The directors are Leonidas Merritt, E. H. Hall, A. R. Merritt, Clarke Lambers, N. B. Merritt, E. G. Lapman and L. J. Merritt.

The purchase of the tug Joe D. Dudley of Cincinnati, by Capt. B. B. Inman, was recorded in Collector Johnson's office yesterday. The boat is 65 feet long and 15 feet beam. Her tonnage is 37.76 gross and 18.18 net. She was built at Buffalo in 1865 and was afterwards rebuilt in 1888. C. E. Denham was the former owner.

The Andrews appeared before a light house at the Temple last night in "La Mascotte." Marie Roe, a member of the company who was ill all last week, took the part of Bettina. She is a charming actress and has a fair voice. Ed Andrews recovered from his attack of grip in time last evening to appear and as usual was funny and pleasing. The other parts were well taken.