Boys' and Children's Hats almost given away.

Lumbermen's, fishermen's and explorers' outfits way below cost.

We are necessarily compelled to vacate our present quarters, as our business has increased to such an extent that we have not the room to accommodate our patrons and our stock. Our store is packed from cellar to garret; clothing is piled mountain high; hats are stacked to the ceiling; our cellar is packed full of shoes; Boys' and Children's clothing is stacked upon the counters so high that it is almost impossible to handle them at all. Cold type piled mountain high would fail to impress you with the Beauty and Magnitude of these Elegant Wearing Apparels, nevertheless we are going to slaughter them at once. We do not propose to move a single article away from this store; we are going to put prices on them that will move them, and move them quickly. We have had "sales," "forced sales," etc., during which we have sold goods for a trifle. This is true, and the people of Duluth know it; but prices of all these sales, when brought into comparison with the low prices we name in this
