

SOCIETY

The promise of the early summer was fulfilled in the social activity of last week. It was the gayest time which Duluth has known for months. There were two dancing parties, a dinner or two and outing parties almost without number. It has been said very often that Duluth—social Duluth that is—show its very best front during the days of summer and the truth of the statement was proven last week.

The cotillion given on Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Merrill in honor of the young ladies who are their guests was a very pretty affair. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Merrill, Miss Ripley, Miss Wallby and the Misses Crosswell. The cotillion, which was formed after refreshments had been served, was led by Morris Brooks and Miss Ripley. The house was prettily decorated for the evening. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Tansig, Mr. and Mrs. C. L.
