

WEST DULUTH COMPANY G'S SHOOT

It Will Be Held on the Morning of Thanksgiving Day.

WARRANT FOR M'NAUGHTON

One Issued by County Attorney
Yesterday Afternoon.
Brief News Notes.

Arrangements have been made for the turkey shoot by Company G on Thanksgiving morning. It promises to be a very successful affair. The participants will be divided into three classes. Those with a high standing will be in Class A, and for intermediate shooting there will be Class B, and for beginners Class C. The prizes for each class will be a first and second.

McNaughton Arrested.

The county attorney issued a warrant for William McNaughton, the St. Paul & Duluth bridge tender, for the alleged shooting of Frank Gergel. McNaughton was arrested yesterday afternoon.

An Old Offender

Joe Thomas was up before Judge Himebaugh yesterday morning on a charge of being drunk. Joe is an old offender, but the judge kindly let him off with a fine of $2.

West Duluth Brevities.

Paul Mitchell has gone to Chicago.

Rev. Mr. Price will hold the regular service in the Congregational church today.

Miss Maud Simpson gave a card party for a number of her friends Friday evening.

Rev. Mr. Keithley will preach at Westminster Presbyterian church at 10:30 o'clock and 7:30 o'clock today.

The West Duluth Manufacturing company has received an order for a large number of logging cars from Mitchell & McClure.

Mr and Mrs M. Kastriner celebrated the tenth anniversary of their marriage on Friday. A large number of friends gathered to congratulate them.

Kitchi Gammi lodge will give a ball on Thursday night. A special car will be run from Duluth for the purpose of accommodating those who wish to attend.