

ROAD OF ROUGH.

FIFTEEN FAMILY SKELETONS WERE PARADED BEFORE JUDGE POWELL IN THE POLICE COURT YESTERDAY.

Fifteen family skeletons were paraded before Judge Powell yesterday by as many individuals. Mrs. George E. Stantz was accused of threatening to generally demoralize the physical condition of Mrs. Julius Oestrich. Hearing will be had tomorrow. William Coney will be tried today on the charge of stealing a leather overcoat from W. M. Abrahamson. William McNaughton will be up today on the charge of assaulting Frank Giergel with a loaded revolver.

Two drunks were sent up, two sentences suspended and one paid. Four tags were sent up.

Conrad Bengfried was acquitted of the charge of incorrigibility.