

...uchre games played were won by Mrs. Upham, Mrs. Chapin, Mrs. Billson and Mrs. Johnson.

Last Wednesday was ladies' night at the Kitchi Gammil club, and about 50 ladies and gentlemen were present to enjoy the hospitality of the members. Miss Markell entertained a number of friends at a Triby evening last Wednesday night. About 20 people were present and several papers were read. The evening was delightfully spent.

Mrs. O. H. Simonds is arranging an entertainment for the benefit of the children's home, to be given soon. The literature class will meet with Miss Collins next Tuesday evening. An interesting program is being prepared.

Miss Collins and Miss Markell leave today for Chicago for a week's visit.

Miss Terry, one of the well known women tennis players of the country, is a recent addition to Duluth social circles. She accompanies her brother and mother, who have just returned from Hudson, N. Y., to Duluth. Mr. Terry has taken a position with the Ironton company.

Mrs. Wells Gilbert leaves soon for Milwaukee and Chicago.

Miss Pollock of St. Paul is visiting with Miss Ensign.

Miss Bessie Strayer is home from Northfield to spend her vacation.

Miss Parker is visiting in Cedar Rapids, Ia.

The literary circle met with Miss Fanny Haas of No. 309 W. Fourth st. last Wednesday afternoon. The subject of discussion was "The Language and People of Palestine." The study of early Jewish history was also taken up.

Last Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Van Wagner were very pleasantly surprised by a number of friends, it being the seventh anniversary of their marriage. Cards, charades and other games were played, after which refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Field, No. 1215 E. Third st., entertained in honor of Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Patton of Pilgrim Congregational church Friday evening. Miss Jennie Moody and Miss Towne gave solos, and refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Le Richeau entertained a number of friends at their home Friday evening. Dancing and refreshments were included in the entertainment. A few friends were entertained Wednesday evening by Miss Poirier. Cards and refreshments were part of the entertainment. Those present were Miss Anna Farrell, Miss Evans, E. F. McCaffrey and C. Macdonald. The Winter club is making arrangements to give a dance in Easter week. It promises to be a handsome affair. At the meeting of the Shakespeare class last Thursday evening Othello was read and discussed. Papers on the play were read by Miss Brown of Superior and Mr. Murphy. Invitations for a card party on next Monday evening have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Saeger. Mrs. Blades will entertain the ladies' whist club next Friday afternoon.

The program for the Bethel benefit concert, which is to be given on May 21, will be completed at the next meeting of the committee. A meeting was held last week, and notice was received that Miss Ila Norton, the Detroit dramatic soprano, has accepted the terms offered, and will participate in the concert. It has been decided that there will be one or two orchestra selections and a couple of choruses.

Next Friday evening a number of Duluth people including Mme. Ostrou-Benard, Mrs. W. C. McAdam, George Tyler and N. H. Murphy, will give an operatic concert at Colquett.

The Duluth Operatic club will give a concert in Virginia City on the evening of April 1.

Miss Ella Munster of Milwaukee is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Waideigh. She will remain in Duluth for some time, to complete her musical education under Mrs. Emil Schmeidel.

The concert given Tuesday evening at the liethel to provide funds for a musical education for Miss Julia Johnson, a young girl who has shown no little talent, was decidedly successful. Miss Johnson only gave one number, a sonatina by Kullian, but she justified the expectation of her friends. Those who assisted in the concert were Miss Collins, Miss Moak, Miss Farrell, Mrs. d'Aufrenoy, Mrs. Murphy, E. C. Jones and Mr. Shirik.

Mr. Shirik will succeed N. S. Murphy in the choir at the Lutheran church. Mr. Murphy, Miss Moak and Miss Collins and E. C. Jones will compose the choir.

The ladies of the Eastern Star will give a poetry party at Masonic hall tomorrow evening. Those who will take part in the program are Mrs. Robinson, Miss Addie Sawyer and Miss E. May Bundy. A large number of invitations have been issued and a large attendance is expected.

Mrs. M. Kastner returned from a six weeks' visit to Antigo, Wis., last Thursday.

Miss Kerr left on Friday for St. Cloud for a week's visit with friends.

Miss Collins has gone to St. Cloud for a visit.

J. Park Channing of New York visited his brother, Roscoe Channing, last week.

Dr. Graham has gone to Detroit, Mich., for a short visit.

Mr. Jacoby has gone to Wabasha on a business trip.

progress of oratorio music and Miss Barnes on the progress of music in the public schools. A paper was read from Mrs. J. S. Dinwoodie on "What Ought to be the Music of the Public Schools in the Future?" Mrs. J. F. Segog spoke concerning American Folk Songs. The meeting was a very interesting one, and highly instructive.

The King's Daughters of the First Presbyterian church will give a social next Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Harrison, No. 2105 E. Superior st. Mrs. Edward Hazen of No. 395 Thirteenth st. E. entertained a number of friends at a progressive euchre party last Thursday evening. The entertainment was in honor of Mrs. Hazen of Brainerd and four tables were filled. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor won the first prizes, and Mrs. O. F. Smith and Robert Cronkiew on the second prizes. Dancing and refreshments followed the cards.

The Woman's Relief corps of the Culver post, G. A. R., will give an old time dancing party at the hall next Tuesday evening.

A dreadfully pleasant affair was the junior exhibition given at the high school assembly hall Friday evening. Entertainments in the high school are becoming noted for their excellence, both in idea and execution, and they are always certain of large and appreciative audiences. The entertainment Friday night brought out the parents and relatives of nearly all the students. Those taking part were the Misses X. Josephine Carey, Marion Bostwick, Julia V. Johnson, Rosie M. Butters, Betty M. Brearley and Rena B. Smith and Messrs. Henry K. Brearley and Carl Z. Driesbach.

The Zenith City Cadets have held several meetings recently to make arrangements for their entertainment on March 27, and last week perfected the program. The West Superior company will be present, and refreshments will be served after the literary and musical numbers. In the program Dr. C. C. Salter will deliver the address, there will be a drill by 12 members commanded by Drill Master Darling, G. Studley will give a recitation, as will also Roy Bailey and Frank Knowlton, and there will be in addition bayonet contests, club swinging and broadsword exercise, in which various members will participate. There will also be addresses by W. T. Langley and Principal West of the Superior High school. Prof. A. S. Ames of the Young Men's Christian association will give an exhibition in club swinging. The entertainment, which is for the purpose of purchasing guns and a flag, will be held at Grand Army hall, which will be transferred into a miniature army camp.

The pupils of Ernest Lachmund will give a Moszkowski recital next Saturday afternoon. Only a few friends of the class will be invited. The program will be as follows:

Waltz	Alto Ammerman
Spanish Dance—No. 1	Daisy Eubrecht
No. 2	St. Clare Nichols
No. 3	Lily Abrahamson
Song	Miss Tupper
Laurel Concert	Julie Cary
Duet
Dorothy Nichols and Winfred Holmes.
Waltz—La Jota	Miss Caldwell
Duet—Fandango
Mrs. S. H. Moor and Mr. Lachmund.
Duet—Hungarian Dance
Mrs. O. W. Baldwin and Mr. Lachmund.
Concert Waltz—A major	Madge Wallace

The famous Scotch singers, Mr. and Mrs. Durward Lely, have at last been secured by the Caledonian club for an entertainment in Duluth, and they will appear at the Temple on Friday, March 29. The Lelys are now on their second American tour, and their concerts have proved a decided musical event whenever given. Mr. Lely prefaces his ballads with historical

The annual Unity Club concert, which was to have been given on March 27, has been postponed for two weeks owing to the illness of some of the participants. In the place of this concert the club will devote the evening of Monday, March 28, to a consideration of Goin's Financial school. E. E. Searle will open the discussion from the standpoint of the monometallist, and will be followed by C. C. Tear, who will speak from the standpoint of the bimetallicist. A general discussion will follow, during which speakers will be allowed 10 minutes each.

An informal reception was held last Sunday afternoon and evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Van Baalen, in honor of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Carrie Van Baalen, and Charles Freimuth. The decorations consisted of ferns, palms and pink roses. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Van Baalen, Mrs. Freimuth, Mrs. J. D. Sattler, Miss Van Baalen and Mr. Freimuth. Among those who called were Messrs. and Mesdames Klein, Loeb, Heller, Silberstein, Oswald, Arnheim, Winterfield, Lamm, H. Abraham, A. Abraham, Misses Haas, Silberstein, Neuman, Swartz, Meinhardt, and S. Loeb, J. Loeb, E. Sattler, A. Freimuth.

Mrs. Dutton entertained a number of friends at a card party on Thursday afternoon. She was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Billson. The house was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations, potted plants and ferns and palms. The prizes in the six hand