

ILLEGAL FISHING.

Peter and Carl Danielson Arrested for Using Nets in the St. Louis.

Two brothers named Peter and Carl Danielson were arrested yesterday by Deputy Game Warden J. H. Moork for illegal fishing in the St. Louis river. They were caught with a couple of nets spread between their boat and the bank of the river. Although they claimed that they were simply catching a mess of fish for the family with whom they stopping, they were taken to the West Duluth police headquarters and warrants were sworn out. They will probably be taken to Duluth today and have a preliminary trial before the municipal court.
