

WEST DULUTH.

Kastriner & Neuman are being complimented upon the enterprise shown by them in decorating their show window in their store. Upon a raised platform, under a canopy, Uncle Sam is seated in a chair, while by his side is an eagle. In front of this platform stand McKinley and Bryan, the one standing upon a gold and the other upon silver tinfoil. The wax figures look very like the pictures exhibited of the presidential candidates.

The firm of Green & Barrick, grocers, assigned yesterday. This firm is supposed to have been doing the best business in West Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Lauerman are entertaining Ben Walter of Aberdeen, S. D.

Miss Susie Murphy, sister of Mrs. P. K. Keating of Proctorknott, and J. A. Gandsey of Hibbing were married on Wednesday at the St. James' Catholic church.

Miss Emma Oaks left yesterday for a visit in Minneapolis.
