

BREVITIES.

James Lane was made a citizen yesterday.

A marriage license has been granted to William E. King and Louise Richmire

In consequence of the inclemency of the weather last night the polo game advertised to take place at the Union rink opposite the Bethel was postponed.

About 6:30 last night the department was called out to a small fire at Twentieth avenue east and London road, caused by an overheated chimney. The damage was nominal.

Members of the Duluth Masonic fraternity will attend the ball to be given Thursday night at West-Superior under the auspices of Superior lodge 338, A. F. and A. M., in the Ritchie block.

Through the courtesy of Manager Bliss of the Spalding the St. Louis County Medical society will hereafter hold its meetings in one of the parlors of that hotel. The next meeting will be held Thursday night.

Jack Flynn a laboring man slipped and fell last evening upon the icy corner near the Windsor hotel, striking his head heavily and producing a severe scalp wound. He was assisted to his boarding house on Lake avenue and medical attendance was procured.

H. Elliott, who was charged with assaulting Samuel B. Lavick Friday night while the latter was chasing some small boys who had thrown stones against his house, was discharged in the municipal court yesterday.

The Duluth land office is in receipt of the decision of Commissioner Lameriaux of the general land office, denying a rehearing in the section 30 case, which was given out in Washington last week and which was fully reported at the time in these columns. In the same connection there is a denial for a rehearing in a similar case affecting lands described as lots 3 and 5 in section 30, 63-11. This property was entered by Dr. Aigen of Duluth.