

Superior Society

Diversions of the fashionable set the past week.

It was picnics, teas, luncheons, parties and receptions, every minute of the time. Even the girls had engagements galore, not all big things but affairs well worth going to.

The gardens and yards are blossoming like the rose, so it is not to be wondered at that the women fond of beauty and gathering together their friends needs must have "just a little tea or something, you know."

When a popular favorite returns her friends entertain so much that it is a case of "wining and dining" all the time.

The big reception of the week was given on Friday by Mrs. Henry Abrahams.

Teas seemed the week's favorite mode of entertainment.

Have you heard that every girl in the society set proper has one, or more special accomplishments, that make her most desirable for house parties and the like?

The younger folks had a dancing party on Monday night and another one last night.

All the young people and most of the married folks are planning to go over to Duluth for the Q. F. U. party at the Spalding on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Hauff of Chicago has been the recipient of a great deal of society's attention ever since her arrival.

As the winter season approaches the desirability of an Assembly club is felt by everybody in the dancing set, so naturally when a crowd gathers that is the first thing talked about. If the general interest and desire continues parties will probably be given regularly.

Every pleasant day the women enthusiastic over wheeling got up little parties. One or two trips were made to Duluth but most always places nearer home were visited.

For many women the invitation picnic on the point on Wednesday was the week's best gift.

Quite a number broke camp yesterday, although the point is far from looking deserted.

Miss Nora Finch, Miss Mary Belknap and Miss Mable Kelly have gone down the lakes.

Mrs. H. Thomas and her guest, Mrs. Gillett of Minneapolis expect to spend the next fortnight in a lake trip in one of the big freighters.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Chauncey S. Carpenter served tea very informally in honor of Mrs. Hauff of Chicago. Great quantities of all the favorite garden flowers adorned the rooms. Mrs. Hauff received with Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Franklin G. Wixson assisted. The following women were greeted: Mrs. Joseph Tuteur, Mrs. Edward C. Kennedy, Mrs. Frank Ostrander, Mrs. Albert W. Durlley, Mrs. Walter McGibbon, Mrs. Charles P. White, Mrs. White of Toledo, Mrs. Robert Kelly, Mrs. Simonds of New York, Miss Nelly White, of Toledo, Mrs. Oliver H. Whitaker, Mrs. Barrett, Miss Hart of St. Paul, Mrs. Winslow, Mrs. William H. Winslow, Miss Maude Winslow, Miss Loretta, Miss Katherine Logan, Mrs. James Le Claire, Mrs. Henry Sloan, Mrs. Miller of New York, Mrs. Charles H. Sunderland, Mrs. James Harper, Mrs. Kinney, and Mrs. Barton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman T. Powell have returned from the point, where they camped with Mr. and Mrs. Warren McCord.

One of those delightful impromptu picnics was gotten up on Monday and enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Walter McGibbon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. White, Mr. and Mrs. James Harper, Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Will D. White, Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Durlley, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey S. Carpenter, Mrs. Frank Ostrander, Mrs. White of Toledo, Miss Nelly White, of Toledo, Mrs. Franklin G. Wixson, Mrs. Hauff of Chicago, Mrs. Barton, Miss Logan and Miss Katherine Logan. They went up to Fond du Lac for the day.

Mrs. Chauncey S. Carpenter, Mrs. Hauff of Chicago, Mrs. William H. Winslow, Miss Nora Finch, Miss Nelly White of Toledo, Mrs. James Le Claire, Miss Louise Butler, Miss Belknap, Miss Alice Belknap, Miss Carrie Lewis and Miss Maude Winslow drank tea with Miss Logan and Miss Katherine Logan on Wednesday afternoon. It was an informal affair given in compliment of Mrs. Miller of New York, who is visiting Miss Maude Winslow.

Yesterday afternoon Miss Maude Winslow gave a tea in honor of her guest, Mrs. Miller of New York. Mrs. Winslow and Mrs. William H. Winslow assisted.

Mrs. James Harper was hostess at a charming little luncheon on Thursday noon. Mrs. Hauff of Chicago was the guest of honor.

For Mrs. Hauff of Chicago, Mrs. Frank Ostrander had a small luncheon party yesterday noon.

Their new cottage on the point was opened on Monday evening by the Misses Lewis with a dancing party. The affair was in the nature of an informal country dance and for those favored a delightful entertainment. Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Banks, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelly, Mrs. Simonds of New York, Miss Louise Butler, Miss Mary Belknap of Louisville, Miss Alice Belknap of Louisville, Miss Mable Kelly, Miss Nora Finch, Miss Florence Greene of Kalamazoo, Mich., Miss Zoe Grace, Miss Susie Bradshaw, Miss Blanche Herzog, Miss Hart of St. Paul, Miss Ethel McCord, Miss Grace Bradshaw, Mr. Strathan, Harry Smith, James Finch, Ben Finch, Tom Simonds of New York, Robert Kelly, jr., Will Kelly, Trumbell Kelly, Edwin Knowles, Mr. Pierce, Mr. Ireys, Lin Butler, George Coburn, Jack Herzog, and Jack McDonough.

Picnics are always delightful but when everything is perfectly arranged and all the guests have to do is to go and enjoy themselves, then it is that picnics become the greatest treat the summer season has to offer. This, leaving out the adjectives, is practically what all the women going on Wednesday's outing thought. Mrs. Charles H. Sunderland and Mrs. Barton took this mode of entertaining. The guests were taken across the bay in sailboats and tugs, landed at O-at-ka beach and entertained there as though in their hostesses' home. The table was spread in the pavillion and an elaborate supper served. Sweet peas were the flowers and the board was attractive with cut glass, silver and all those little things so seldom found at a picnic. In the evening there were music and dancing. These women were entertained: Mrs. Edward C. Kennedy, Mrs. Albert W. Durlley, Mrs. Charles P. White, Mrs. White of Toledo, Mrs. Frank Ostrander, Mrs. Walter McGibbon, Mrs. Howard Thomas, Mrs. Warren McCord, Mrs. Eldred, Mrs. James Harper, Mrs. Kinney, Mrs. I. C. McNeil, Mrs. Robert Kelly, Mrs. Simonds of New York, Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Chauncey S. Carpenter, Mrs. Will D. White, Mrs. Pope, Mrs. Archibald Peckham, Mrs. Franklin G. Wixson, Mrs. Hauff of Chicago, Mrs. Joseph Tuteur, Mrs. Solon L. Ferrin, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Kellogg, Mrs. Sweeney, Mrs. Robert D. Whitford, Mrs. Bowman, Mrs. Fred Harper, Mrs. Myron Reed, Mrs. Garish, Mrs. Henry H. Grace, Mrs. Louis R. Hurd, Mrs. Hantch, Mrs. George Clithero, Mrs. Samuel W. Lightbody, Mrs. Samuel N. Dickinson, Mrs. William H. Graham, Mrs. Martin Pattison, Mrs. John Bradshaw, Mrs. Samuel Whitmore, Mrs. Frank Heyman, Mrs. Brown of St. Paul, Mrs. Charles Listman of Chicago, Mrs. Delano Smith, Mrs. Daniel L. Mahoney, Mrs. Clark of California and Mrs. Catlin.

A very large and extremely handsome reception was given on Friday afternoon by Mrs. Henry Abraham of Loring terrace. The rooms were elaborately and beautifully adorned with sweet peas, palms, ferns and smilax. The curtains were drawn and the lights shaded in pink. Alexander's orchestra, stationed upstairs, played all afternoon. The reception was in honor of Mrs. Hofheimer of Norfolk, Va., and Mrs. A. H. Heller of Chippewa Falls, and they received with Mrs. Abraham. In the dining room Mrs. I. L. Lamm and Mrs. Al Abraham served. The invitation list included Mrs. James H. Culver, Mrs. William F. Gould, Mrs. Leslie E. Waterman, Mrs. William F. Boland, Mrs. Albert W. Durlley, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Howard Thomas, Mrs. I. C. McNeil, Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Robert Kelly, Mrs. James Harper, Mrs. F. J.
