

In Society

The Week in Duluth.

If the past week did drag this one will be gay enough to suit anybody. The big ball tomorrow night, a large musicale on Tuesday, Wednesday's concert, and small things galore.

All society will be at the ball tomorrow night and for those that do not dance the scene will be one of great brilliancy. Duluth does not have so many formal balls that anybody in the fashionable set can afford to miss St. Luke's.

Fate is surely very unkind. The less there is going on the fewer nice little bits of gossip things there are to talk about. It is all or nothing.

The belles are almost bored to death. A whole week and not a big party.

The most sought after man in town had only two invitations, so you can imagine how dull the week has been.

Society is going to have weddings but they are both so far in the future that there is little to say about them. Save that they are going to be.

The school year is about to open and many of the young folks will leave this week. However, fewer will go this autumn than ever before.

Men that travel much and are invited often claim that two of the Duluth matrons give the most successful dinners.

A great many minds would be at rest if six people would acknowledge engagements.

The visiting girls hold up the reputations of the Duluth men for style and good looks; by their manner is another story.

It is as necessary for society men and women to be posted on and careful about the carrying out of the small details of social intercourse, as to be gracious and affable in manner. Dame fashion does not have so many whims, that it is impossible to know them and if one is truly well bred as well as well born, the task will not be difficult.

Most every town of any size has a promenade, where between the hours of 4 and 6, beauty and style may parade. Here there is no place but Superior street, and the street standing men make that anything but desirable.

One of a series of handsome dinner parties was given on Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. George C. Howe of 1421 East Superior street for their guest, Miss Marion Smith of Chicago. The decorations were in white and pink. In the center of the table was a large banquet lamp standing on an oval mirror. The lamp had a dainty pink shade and about the mirror was a border of ferns. All over the cloth were scattered sprays of sweet peas. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Phillips, Miss Smith of Chicago, Miss Blanche Howe, Miss Chapin, Miss Virginia Magoffin, Mr. Alec Hartman, Mr. Erreld Martin, Mr. Will McCormick, and Mr. Will Cleland.

Miss Simonds is quite ill with typhoid fever.

Tomorrow, Miss Teiza Hirsch goes east to re-enter Vassar.

Madam Phillips left Tuesday on the Monarch for Montreal.

Mrs. E. F. Emerson, who has been here for a couple of weeks, will go east tomorrow with Miss Hirsch.

One of the matinee parties at the Lyceum on Wednesday was made up of Miss Marguerite Comstock, Miss Bessie Strayer, Miss Zilla Eaton, Miss Elizabeth Spencer, and Miss Elliott.

Mrs. Neil B. Morrison is in Minneapolis for the state fair.

One of the beaux has gone away,—do you know what for?

Miss Mayme Macdougall is ill with the fever.

Some of the folks are of an opinion that one of the most stylish girls is about to announce an engagement to an out of town man. The man is a wealthy Southerner.

Mrs. Sheldon L. Frazer and Miss Elizabeth Frazer returned Friday on the North Land from a month's lake trip.

An especially fine musical program has been arranged for the service at the Morley Congregational church this morning. Mr. Lammers will sing and Miss Bagley, a very talented violinist recently here from Minneapolis, will play. Miss Smallwood also will sing a solo.

Herr Carl Riedelsberger, who has been here all summer, returns to Des Moines, Ia., on Thursday.

A number of the musicians have an informal little gathering with Miss Bagley this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy S. Anneke Mr. and Mrs. William Schupp Miss Dora Kugler, and Mr. Peter Patterson formed a box party that went over to Superior on Friday evening for the Riedelsberger recital.

Some of the musical people will gather at Mr. and Mrs. Percy S. Anneke's this afternoon for an impromptu program.

Miss Lawitzky will return to St. Louis on Thursday.

According to a score of the matrons and maids the most aristocratic man in town, both in looks and manner, belongs to the middle set.

The musical to be given in honor of Herr Carl Riedelsberger at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Phelan on Tuesday evening, promises to be an unusual interesting event socially and musically. It will witness the debut of one of Duluth's fairest daughters, Miss Minnie MacDonald, who has just returned from Alma College, St. Thomas, Ont., where she graduated with high honors from the elocutionary department under the direction of the famous Dr. Neff of the Neff school of oratory at Philadelphia. Miss MacDonald will give two readings and those that have heard her are enthusiastic.

On Tuesday evening, Mrs. George Horton had a few people in informally to play cards with Mrs. John Watson of Fargo. After the game a chafing dish supper was prepared by the defeated ones.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Silvey will be at the Spalding for the winter.

Miss Alice Jones returned to the University on Monday.

The Home Cook books, thought to be very fine by those that have tried them, are sold at a greatly reduced price, as the money is needed. These books contain the choicest and most successful recipes of the best housewives in Duluth and Superior.

Mrs. J. R. Brearley and Miss Betty Brearley will leave on Wednesday for a visit in Chicago, Racine and Milwaukee.

Miss Laura Aner Nelson of Lebanon, Mo., who is the guest of Mrs. Wetmore, will leave the last of the week.

Over 150 invitations have been issued by Dr. and Mrs. Phelan for a musicale on Tuesday evening in honor of Herr Carl Riedelsberger. It will be a very artistic function.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa F. Leopold of 214 Thirteenth street, Chicago, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Blanche Leopold, to Mr. Saul Goldberg of Duluth. At home Sept. 12 and 14.

Miss Lillian Ingalls will return today from Marquette—where she has been with Miss Emily Watson—on the China.

A very interesting party was given at the elegant apartments of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Woodward on Friday evening in honor of the choir of the First Methodist church. The guests representing their special fads were: Miss Louise Nagler, fishing; Miss Orchard, sweet peas; Miss Bagley of West Duluth, sweet peas; Miss Dyer, of West Duluth, pancies; Miss Milner, ribbons; Miss Chamberlain, amateur photography; Miss Alexander, skating; Miss Lizzie Hoyt, reading; Miss Winnie Darr, sweet peas; Miss Mickleson, cooking; Miss Brackinreid, hunting four leaved clovers; Miss Falkland, botany; Mrs. Ellis of Denver, ferns; Mrs. Goodman, loyalty; Mrs. McDonald, laces; Miss Kelly, bachelor girl; Miss Florence Briggs, bachelor girl; Mr. Sullivan, hunting; Mr. Ober, chess; Mr. Chaffee, diamonds; Mr. Thompson, roses; Mr. Geggie, kodak pictures; Mr. Bull, horses; Mr. Sablin, clippings; Mr. Ulrick, sewing on buttons; Mr. Shellenberger, business; Mr. Woodward, Boston bull terrier. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Loman, Dr. and Mrs. Humason, Mr. and Mrs. H. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Paul, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bradley, Mrs. Hoyt and Mr. D. G. Black.

Miss Marion McMillan, who has been away all vacation, is expected home on Tuesday. July she spent in Tomah and LaCrosse, Wis. The last five weeks Miss McMillan was with her sister in Muskegon, Mich., and is now visiting friends in Minneapolis.

If one did not know otherwise, one might think that the floor managers for the ball were chosen for their good looks.

Miss Marie Miller gave a farewell dinner party on Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. Fogt who left yesterday on the North Land. Covers were laid for 10.

Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. H. Fogt sailed on the North Land. They will go abroad. Mrs. Fogt's father is the founder of the Shaw college in Schwiag.

On Friday evening Mr. Alec Hartman gave an informal house picnic entertaining Mrs. John B. Adams, Mrs. Gamble, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. James, Miss Lampher of St. Paul, Miss Smith, Miss Clara Bull, Mr. Charles E. Bassett, and Mr. Kibbie.

A charming sweet pea dinner party was given on Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Marble. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Towne, Congressman and Mrs. Hartman, of Montana, Judge and Mrs. Moer, and Mrs. Watson of Fargo.

As an entertainment for their guests, Congressman and Mrs. Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Towne gave a buckboard drive around the Boulevard on Friday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Towne, Mrs. Watson of Fargo, Mrs. Moer, Mrs. O. W. Baldwin, Miss Nora Towne, Mrs. L. C. Harris and Mrs. McManus were the guests.

Mrs. John Watson, Judge and Mrs. Moer's guest, returns to Fargo tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Irving Van Vleet, Mr. and Mrs. William Schupp, Miss Dana Van Vleet, and Col. Shares go out camping this week to remain a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. John Owens, Judge and Mrs. Moer, Mrs. Watson of Fargo, Mrs. Triggs, Mr. and Mrs. McManus, Mr. and Mrs. Harris, Dr. Harris, Congressman and Mrs. Hartman, Mrs. O. W. Baldwin, and Miss Nora Towne had an informal welsch rarebit party with Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Towne of Chester Terrace on Friday evening.

will probably be very elaborate as this function formally opens the new season.

Mrs. O. W. Baldwin entertained Mrs. Watson of Fargo, Mrs. Hartman, Mrs. Charles A. Towne, Mrs. Moer, and Mrs. C. P. Smith at luncheon on Thursday.

Few men in town have more friends than Dr. Forbes and no doubt all of the regulation 500 as well as the music lovers will be at the concert on Wednesday evening. This concert is for the benefit of Dr. Forbes and will be given at the Asbury Methodist church at West Duluth. Seldom has a finer program been offered here than the following one:
Quartet, "Spring Song".....Pinsault
Mr. and Mrs. Jewell and Mr. and Mrs. Adams.
Barytone soloSelected
Mr. Foran.
ReadingSelected
Mr. Cox.
Tenor solo, "Among the Lilies".....Dana

Miss Marguerite Sullivan has returned from a visit to her home in Grand Rapids, Michigan, and in Detroit, and Canada, on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. King and Mrs. F. F. Campaw have returned from Minneapolis, where they have been attending the fair.

Dr. J. L. Elliott returned from Deerwood yesterday morning, on a ten days' outing.

The Sunday schools of Lakeside and Lester Park will join forces and hold a grand rally on Saturday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock. All the Sunday schools in that part of the city will unite and march with music and banners to the park, where an excellent program on the subject of Sunday schools will be given. Harmonica Hall has been obtained, and good speakers engaged, so a grand time is assured.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Garland, Miss Allen, Miss Kirt Eddy, Miss Lou Eddy, of Bay City, Mich., Miss Mercer, of Saginaw, Mich.; Dr. Newkirk, and Glen Meeker, of Bay City, were a party of swell people that spent a couple of days here the first of the week. They came up on the Penobscot, and staid at the Spalding.

Mr. Robert Douglas and Mr. L. Schaefer of Buffalo, spent most of the week here.

A number of the younger set have organized a social club, to be called the Junior Assembly. It is the intention to give one party each month, and the first one is to be held on Friday evening, as fitting close to a long vacation.

The Q. F. U. girls held their annual business meeting yesterday afternoon, with Miss Clara Humason. According to the constitution no officer can hold office two years in succession, and so a full set of new officers were elected, as follows: Mrs. Robert Eyster, president; Miss Virginia La Vaque, vice-president; Miss Betty Brearly, secretary; Miss M. S. Bradley, treasurer; Miss Blanche Howe, work committee; Miss Clara Ames, Miss Belle Simonds, tellers. The society is in excellent condition, and the final reports of the party show that it was a very great financial success.

Miss Marguerite Comstock, Miss Ophelia Bellwood, Miss Zilla Eaton, Miss Elliott, Mr. Frank Williams, Mr. Frederick Baldrick, Mr. Ernest Jacobi, and Mr. William Dalrymple, picnicked on the Point on Thursday evening.

At a very quiet home wedding Miss Jessie Anderson and Mr. Robert Chase, of St. Louis, will be married on Wednesday. Rev. Mr. Anderson, the father of the bride, will read the service.

Miss Charlotte Leland has gone to Chicago for the winter.

Mrs. Smith, of Grand Marais, is with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Miller.

For Prof. Ball Mr. Ehling gave a stag party on Wednesday evening.

The marriage of Miss Minnie McGann and Mr. Edward Massey, was celebrated on Wednesday in Minneapolis. Rev. Fr. J. J. Keane performed the ceremony in the presence of a few intimate friends. Miss Maud McGann, of this city, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. John Wilson acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Massey will reside at Hibbing, where Mr. Massey is in business.

Miss Maud McGann returned on Friday to her home in this city, after viewing the state fair, in Minneapolis, in company with her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Massey.

From 3 till 6 o'clock Friday afternoon Mrs. J. L. Washburn, of Woodland, received the women on her calling list. It was a most charming reception in every way. The house was beautifully and elaborately decorated. The reception room, where the receiving party—Mrs. Washburn, Mrs. Hartman, Mrs. Arthur Brown, and Miss Pattee—stood, was in yellow daisies. Poppies and mountain ash berries decorated the drawing room; the library was in heliotrope. Pink, white and green were the colors used in the dining room, from the chandelier to the four corners of the table ran pink satin ribbons, twined with smilax, pink and white sweet peas were on the table. Mrs. Charles A. Towne and Mrs. Lewis served, assisted by Mrs. Phelps, Mrs. Greenwood, Mrs. Birch, and Miss Markell. Miss Margaret Graff was at the punch bowl in the library. A string orchestra was upstairs. Between 200 and 300 cards were issued for the receptions.

Tomorrow afternoon the Card Club will meet with Miss Blanche Howe.

Herr Carl Reidelsberger will make his last appearance here before returning to Des Moines, at the musical to be given by the Unitarian ladies at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fitzer, on Wednesday evening. A charming program will be given by Mrs. Emil Schmeid, Miss Lawitzky, of St. Louis, Mr. Theodore Lammers, and Herr Reidelsberger.

The Hlega club had a party on Monday evening.

The Elmira took this party for a sail on Friday evening: Mrs. Cook and son, of Chicago; Miss Sadie Carr, Miss Florence Williams, Miss Robert, Miss Mable White, Miss Nellie McLaren, Mr. C. E. Richardson, Mr. Cook, Mr. Fred Niles, Mr. James Wanless, Mr. Louis McGregor, and Mr. Robert Wilson.

Though extremely quiet the marriage of Miss Emily May Richardson and Mr. Brewer Mattocks, Jr., was a beautiful affair. Only the relatives and a very few of the nearest friends were there. Dr. Thomas H. Cleland performed the ceremony, during which Mrs. Knebel played softly Nevin's "Narcissus." Miss Frances Richardson and Mr. Norton Mattocks were in the bridal party. After the first of October Mr. and Mrs. Mattocks will reside at 25 Third avenue west.

The opening reception will probably be given at Maynard school a week from Friday.

The beaux of the two towns seem determined to keep the life saving men busy on Labor day.

Miss Flossie Pilling leaves on the steamer Steaves for Buffalo, and also Philadelphia, her home.

Great preparations are making by the ladies of the Grace M. E. Church, for their harvest home festival, on Tuesday afternoon and evening, to be held at 1823 West Superior street.

Mrs. H. C. Wetmore returned yesterday from Chicago.

This is the membership of the newly organized Junior Assembly Club, just formed: Mr. F. Jones, Mr. R. Gallagher, Mr. C. LaSalle, Mr. Stuart Dalrymple, Mr. C. Farmer, Mr. Searle Tyler, Mr. C. Skuse, Mr. H. Smallwood, Mr. G. Smith, Mr. Earl Richards, Mr. J. Miles, Mr. P. Barnes, Mr. H. Wadsworth, Mr. Granth Wray, Mr. H. Jacobson, Mr. Clinton Markell, Mr. E. Rockwell, Mr. H. Halling, Mr. J. Holmes, Mr. Henry Talboys, Mr. L. Tyler, Mr. S. Fitzer, Mr. W. Bradley, and Mr. James McLennan. Kalamazoo hall has been engaged for the parties which will be given each month.

Mr. Will McLennan left on the Monarch on Tuesday for a lake trip, and visit to Toronto.

The Eddy party, from Bay City, with Miss Marguerite Comstock, Mr. Charles E. Bassett, and Mr. Alec Hartman, went to the opera on Tuesday night; afterward Mr. Hartman entertained at supper.

If the ball for the benefit of the building fund for a new St. Luke's Hospital is half as successful as anticipated, it will surpass anything of the kind ever given. Little else has been talked of the whole week, and it will probably be the subject of conversation at most of the supper parties tonight. And the best of all the interest is widespread, and no particular set or age is more concerned than the others, something unusual with Duluth social functions, for the are not always for one crowd, and so, of course, that means an immense gathering of old, middle aged and young, from all the different fashionable circles. All day yesterday and most of tomorrow the Armory will be in the hands of the decorators. Mrs. Pains has charge of the hall adornment and it will be a very pretty place when she is through with it, bunting, greens, mountain ash berries, and the greatest profusion of flowers, will simply transform the room to a thing of beauty. Mrs. Bowers, Mrs. H. B. Moore, and Mrs. Bywater have charge of the refreshments—coffee, dainty sandwiches and punch—which are to be served free. The floor managers are Mr. William C. Sargent, Mr. Rothermel, Mr. William E. Lucas, Mr. Townsend W. Hoopes, Dr. Lynam, Dr. Robertson, Mr. Welles Gilbert, Mr. Frank Williamson, Mr. Alec Hartman, Mr. Morton Miller, Mr. Clinton P.
