

THE CITY.

Kauppi's Holiday Sojourn.

Jacob Kauppi was brought to the county jail yesterday from Ely for assault. He has to serve a 25-day sentence.

Polinsky Found Guilty.

Joseph Polinsky and Charles Polinsky, tried on Wednesday for assaulting Prosper Finnette, were found guilty in police court yesterday morning by Judge Gearhart, and they had to pay $10 and costs each.

McEwen Likely to be Re-elected.

The trades assembly will meet tonight, and will elect officers for the ensuing term. Few have been mentioned for the office of president, but President W. E. McEwen, it is said, can have the office if he wants it.

Water Works Meeting.

The water works committee will hold a session at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the city hall investigating the matter of the collapse of the Fischer's creek bridge. It is still uncertain as to whether the meeting will be open.

Cathedral Ladies Entertain.

The cathedral ladies entertained last night at Catholic Association hall. The evening was spent mostly in card playing.

Smith Just a Bit Too Smooth.

The fact that the county board has refused to offer a reward for S. D. Smith probably means that that individual can now rest in peace, unless the Detroit bank that was the sufferer is anxious to prosecute.

Sickened in Indian Country.

Harrison G. Stone, a former member of Company F, Fourteenth Minnesota regiment, is quite sick in St. Luke's hospital with inflammation of the bladder. Mr. Stone first became sick through the exposure he suffered during the Leech lake trouble. He was sick with typhoid in St. Paul, and later in St. Luke's hospital. The young man is a son of Mrs. Mary G. Stone of Walla Walla, Wash.

Looking After His Logging.

Senator C. B. Buckman of Little Falls and C. S. Benson of St. Cloud, member of the Republican congressional committee, were among the politicians at the St. Louis last evening. Senator Buckman reports things political quiet and serene in and about Little Falls. He is here looking after shipments of supplies to his logging camps north of Duluth. He expects to be in the city more or less while continuing logging operations in this district.

Not Ready to Talk.

A party consisting of Louis Allis of Milwaukee, a member of the machinery manufacturing firm of the Edward P. Allis company, W. H. Cotrell of Milwaukee and John A. Rupp, a mining engineer of Ironwood, Mich., registered at the Spaulding yesterday on their return from a trip up on the Vermilion range, where the property of the Allis company was visited. Mr. Allis declined to say anything relating to the plans of the company for work on the Vermilion or at Duluth. His only admission was that the company intended to do some development work during the ensuing year.

Upham Contract Ready.

City Attorney Richards has drawn up a contract between N. J. Upham & Co. and the city which gives N. J. Upham & Co. the right to buy all city improvement certificates issued previously to Jan. 1. The contract will probably be executed today.

Very Little Damage.

Shortly after 6 o'clock last evening the fire department was called to a house on Third avenue west between Second and Third street. A blaze started in the attic and it was caused by an electric fire. The fire was put out in a very few minutes and scarcely any damage was done.

"Billy" McDonald's Heirs Get It.

The decision of the local land office in the case of W. A. McDonald against the state, involving land in section 25, 6-1, in favor of Mr. McDonald, has been affirmed by Land Commissioner Herrmann. Mr. McDonald died in Superior a few months ago of appendicitis, but his heirs will have the right to the land.

Mr. Cassell's Large Funeral.

The funeral of Rev. C. O. Cassell, the late pastor of the Swedish Lutheran Bethany church, was held from the church yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Mr. Cassell's popularity was plainly shown by the large crowd that attended his last rites. Most of the Swedish Lutheran pastors in this district attended.

Wife Beater Crowell Discharged.

Charles Crowell, the man that was arrested on Wednesday for wife beating has been released. Mrs. Crowell, who made the complaint against her husband begged the court yesterday to let the man go. Judge Gearhart gave Crowell a lecture and Crowell having promised to behave hereafter, he was allowed to go.

Mr. Miller's Attitude.

Andrew Miller, one of the representatives from the Fiftieth district, announces that he was unavoidably detained from the meeting at the city hall yesterday afternoon. He adds that he is in favor of and will support any measure that will be deemed for the best interests of Duluth and of St. Louis county.

Representative Nelson in Town.

Representative-elect N. C. Nelson of Two Harbors was in the city yesterday. He was one of the most interested attendants at the meeting that took place at the city hall in the afternoon in which the forfeited tax law was under discussion. Representative Nelson is a life long Republican and one of the oldest settlers at Two Harbors.

Were They Married?

A marriage license was issued to William P. Fritts and Mina Kelley in district court yesterday. The girl is only 15 years of age and her father went to the clerk's office with the prospective groom to give his consent to the union.

Big Turkeys in Duluth.

A friend in Fulton, Mo., has sent S. T. Harrison a 2-pound Christmas turkey. This is a pound heavier than the famous bird sent to President Cleveland, but it is not the heaviest turkey in Duluth by any means. Several of the national birds, of 10 the girl whose name is Laura, the old man wanted this corrected, but the clerk of court told him that he would have to bring back the license. He would not consent to this, however, and finally went away much disgruntled.

Order to Show Cause.

In the case of Amelia Traphagen against James A. Smearlie and Belle Smearlie, Judge Ensign made an order in district court yesterday commanding the plaintiff to show cause on Dec. 24 why the supplementary proceedings against Belle Smearlie should not be discontinued as Mrs. Smearlie has begun bankruptcy proceedings in the United States court.

Ready to Begin Again.

A final discharge from all his debts was filed in the bankruptcy case of Sterling S. Smith in United States court yesterday.

No involuntary bankruptcy cases have been filed in United States court yet. The Eastern Minnesota road filed a demurrer to the complaint in the case of Tolaf Olson vs. the Chicago, Great Western road in United States court yesterday morning.

Postoffice Arrangements.

At the postoffice for the rest of this week the stamp window will be open until 9 o'clock in the evening. On Saturday night the general delivery will be open until 9 o'clock in the evening.

Shoppers From the Range.

The passenger train that came down over the Duluth & Iron Range yesterday noon was crowded with passengers. It consisted of four coaches, besides the baggage cars and the car of the Minnesota iron company which was attached to the rear end. Fully 50 per cent of the passengers were women, who came down to do their Christmas shopping. A good many hundreds of dollars from off the ranges are this year finding their way into the tills of the retail merchants on Superior street.

Recover on Town Bonds.

The township of Canosa began a suit in district court yesterday to compel the towns of Grand Lake and Dinham to bear their proportionate shares of the bonded debt of Canosa. Canosa issued $10,000 worth of bonds in 1892 for building bridges. In 1893 the town of Grand Lake was formed out of a part of Canosa, and in 1896 Dinham was formed out of still another part of Canosa. Canosa now seeks to put part of the burden on the other two towns of the sinking fund fully dressed, were on exhibition on Michigan street yesterday by one dealer, who merely remarked that they were "fine birds." The weights of the heaviest six were, respectively, 22, 20½, 20½, 18, and two at 25 pounds.

Mrs. John Campbell Dead.

Mrs. John Campbell, an old resident of Duluth died at the home of her daughter Mrs. William Beatty of 24 First avenue east yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Campbell was 73 years old. Her husband survives her and she leaves behind him the following sons and daughters, Charles D. Campbell and D. H. Campbell of Duluth, A. I. Campbell and J. F. Campbell of Kansas City, and Mrs. Fressie and Mrs. Beatty of Duluth. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Shoppers From the Range.

The passenger train that came down over the Duluth & Iron Range yesterday noon was crowded with passengers. It consisted of four coaches, besides the baggage cars and the car of the Minnesota iron company which was attached to the rear end. Fully 50 per cent of the passengers were women, who came down to do their Christmas shopping. A good many hundreds of dollars from off the ranges are this year finding their way into the tills of the retail merchants on Superior street.

Recover on Town Bonds.

The township of Canosa began a suit in district court yesterday to compel the towns of Grand Lake and Dinham to bear their proportionate shares of the bonded debt of Canosa. Canosa issued $10,000 worth of bonds in 1892 for building bridges. In 1893 the town of Grand Lake was formed out of a part of Canosa, and in 1896 Dinham was formed out of still another part of Canosa. Canosa now seeks to put part of the burden on the other two towns of the sinking fund rinks. The scores and players follows:

M. A. Thompson, D. W. Peterson,
M. A. McEwen, A. D. Thomson,
J. H. Upham, Jr., J. H. Upham, Jr.,
George K. Taylor, F. A. Currier,
Alex. McEne, D. G. Cutler,
Skip-12. Skip-10.

Cochrane's Election Sure.

It was asserted yesterday by a West end man that President Cochrane of the council will surely be re-elected. It was also said that in all probability Mr. Cochrane will be a candidate for Mayor a year hence.

Frank Tims is mentioned for alderman from the Seventh ward to succeed Alderman Richardson, who it is said will be defeated next spring. Capt. Stevens, formerly alderman from this ward, and who, it was expected would run this spring, declared yesterday that he will not be a candidate.