

Neighboring Towns.

HONOR THEIR GUESTS.

Hibbing Maccabees Banquet Official Callers.

Special to News Tribune.

HIBBING, Feb. 28.—The official Maccabee visitors in the persons of F. W. Stevens of the Maccabee paper, the Bee Hive, and Deputy Commander Brundage of Detroit, Mich., were tendered a banquet at Hotel Hibbing last Friday evening by the local tent. The guests, members with ladies and lady Maccabees, first enjoyed supper. Speaking was in order. Dr. Manson acting as toast master. Ten-minute toasts were responded to by the official visitors, Thomas F. Brady, Rev. Satterlee, Prof. Graham, R. F. Berdie and Mrs. A. E. Bickford, who spoke in behalf of the ladies of the order.

Ed Tobin met with an accident Saturday that may be the cause of losing of the sight of his right eye. He was working in the shop filling pop bottles and had just finished a case and was lifting it from one of the the rack when a cork from one of the bottles blew out with great force and struck the eyeball. Just how bad the case is is not known.

The village caucus to nominate a village ticket for the annual spring election which will be held March 8, is called for next Friday evening at the town hall. The Stuntz township caucus will be held the following night. The candidates are full of confidence and the week's campaign will be a warm one. The interest has never been so great here.

Dr. Hood and bride have returned from an eastern wedding tour. They were accompanied from Duluth by Mr. and Mrs. Pent Mitchell.

Max Greenblatt has gone to Chicago to purchase spring stock.

Maurice Hostetler returned last Friday from a visit at his old home at Shipshewana, Ind.

Miss Carrie Webb has returned from an extended stay at Ironwood, Mich.

Dr. McCormick has returned to Duluth, having been relieved of his hospital duties by Dr. Hood returning today.

H. B. Dear and family have returned from a California trip.

Mrs. William Cummings of Mahoning, is very low from consumption.

G. A. R. Simpson came up from Minneapolis Saturday.

Mrs. G. W. Miller left today for Chicago to purchase spring stock. Before returning she will visit Marinette, Menominee, Wis., and Escanaba, Mich.

Dennis Haley, P. H. Varley, W. H. Wright, Louis Peterson, John Collins and James Bullard, who compose the Hibbing party that have the Klondicetts, left here this morning for Duluth via the Mississippi road to take the Northern Pacific to Seattle and then go to the Copper river gold district over the Valdes pass. They will go to represent Hibbing capital and will prepare for a two-year stay, buying provisions sufficient to last 20 months. They will depend on procuring game enough for the remaining time. A large number of friends and relatives were at the depot.