

THE CITY.

Laundry Workers' Ball.

The laundry workers' union will give its fourth annual ball on the night of Thursday, March 23, at Odd Fellows hall. The committee on arrangements is R. Blackwood, John McMurchy and Robert Ferguson.

Truelsen Among the Who's.

Mayor Truelsen will enjoy the distinction of having his biography printed in a book entitled "Who's Who in America," published by A. N. Marquis & Co. The mayor received and read proofs of the biography yesterday.

Opens a Land Office.

Fred Wilsey, eastern land agent of the Northern Pacific road, was in the city yesterday arranging for the establishment of an agency in Duluth. A room was rented at No. 12 Fifth avenue west, and S. B. Brigham was appointed agent.

Obedience To Be Given.

At the close of the prayer meeting at the First Christian church, corner of Fourth street and Fifth avenue west, Thursday evening, March 9, there will be obedience given to the head of the church, as commanded through Peter on the day of Pentecost.

Officer Kassmir Sick.

Patrolman Marcus Kassmir was taken violently sick shortly after going on duty last evening. He was taken to police head quarters and a doctor summoned, and was later taken to his home. The doctors say that his indisposition is due to a severe attack of grip.

Deserves Another Term.

Mayor Truelsen will probably send in the name of C. M. Wilson to succeed himself as member of the board of public works to the council on Monday night. The mayor has announced that Mr. Wilson will be nominated, believing that one good term deserves another.

Probate Court Matters.

In probate court yesterday the last will and testament of Mrs. Maria Bertha Gilbert was filed, and the court ordered a hearing on proof of the will for April 3.

In the matter of the estate of Iver Sather, Judge Middlecoff made a decree for paying debts and distributing the assets.

Missionary Thank Offering.

The Woman's Foreign missionary thank offering service will be held at the parlors of the First Methodist church at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Dinner will be served from 6 to 7 o'clock, and in the evening Miss Sulia E. Wisner, principal of the High school for girls at Rangoon, Burmah, will speak.

Trustee's Bonds Filed.

In the bankruptcy case of Peter J. Krupp and in the case of Wilhelmina Krupp the approved bond of Thomas S. Wood as trustee was filed yesterday in the office of the clerk of the United States court.

In the bankruptcy proceedings of Annie Barnard a list of creditors that have approved claims was filed.

Say There Is Opposition.

Mayor Truelsen has received a dispatch from Senator Daugherty and Senator Baldwin announcing that there is strong opposition to Duluth's tax measure in the legislature and requesting the calling of a mass meeting to urge the passage of the bill. It is supposed that the bill referred to is the one amending the forfeited tax law so that the city assessments will be protected.

Beebe's New Calling.

Assistant City Clerk Beebe will not be a candidate for re-election next Monday night as he has accepted a situation as telegraph editor of The News Tribune.

The question now is regarding Mr. Beebe's successor. Axel Zimmerman terday in district court. The total amount of claims proved and allowed is $1,521.58. The receiver has received $127.22 in cash, has paid out $175.55 for expenses, has on hand $251.47 and $10 worth of unsold assets.

Notice is given that the book accounts will be publicly sold next Friday morning, and in special term next day a motion for confirmation of sale will be brought before the court.

Modern Samaritan Social.

Alpha council No. 1, Modern Samaritans, had a social last night at Elk's hall that was well attended by women. Fully 300 people attended and a most enjoyable evening was spent. The evening's entertainment opened by a short program containing recitations and speeches. This was followed by the taking of a flash light picture of the crowd and then the dancing began. The dancing was kept up until a late hour and a large part of the crowd stayed to the end. During the dance quite an elaborate supper was served in the dining room adjoining the ball room.

Compliment to Prof. Cole.

The athletes and members of the Young Men's Christian association have decided to give an athletic exhibition shortly after Lent for the benefit of Prof. Daniel Cole, physical director, as a slight recognition of his faithful services. The entertainment will consist of athletics by members of the Y. M. C. A., assisted by members of the Turn Verein and other prominent athletes at the head of the lake who have kindly volunteered. There will also be musical selections, recitations, etc., interspersed between the athletic numbers. The stage management will be in the hands of Lansing Robinson.

The following committee has the matter in charge, and will meet at the Y. M. C. A. rooms on Wednesday, March 15, when final details will be arranged: Dr. Lynam, Messrs. Sonnenberg, Wing, Prescott, Seacamp, Telford, McPhail and Robinson.

showed considerable strength on Tuesday night and many predict his election but others say that S. C. Murphy, a dark horse, will win out. It is said that the office will go to a West end man.

---

Rooney Is Released.

Thomas Rooney, who was sent up from the municipal court on Feb. 27 for assault, paid his fine yesterday, less the number of days he has worked on the rock pile. Rooney paid $2.71.

Joseph Oreckovsky, the man that Humane Agent Withrow accuses of driving a lame horse, was arraigned yesterday morning, and pleaded not guilty. His trial was set for Friday, and his bail was fixed at $10. Later, the man decided to plead guilty, and will do so this morning.

---

Stationers Incorporate.

Articles of incorporation were filed with the register of deeds yesterday by the Albertson Book & Stationery company. The incorporation is to run 30 years. Its capital is $20,000, and the incorporators are: D. L. Davis of Pontiac, Mich.; A. T. Albertson, W. S. Albertson and J. H. Norton. The officers of the company will be W. S. Albertson, president; D. L. Davis, vice president; and A. T. Albertson, secretary and treasurer.

The Temple Emanuel congregation filed articles, also.

---

Three Land Office Decisions.

The local land office rendered three decisions yesterday, and in each case the decision is given the plaintiff. All of them grew out of Indian allotments. An action of Albert Fletcher against Eliza Weber for her minor children, Charles and Gabriel, involves land in 30-15-28. The action of Martin Duffeey against Eliza Weber, for minor children Annie and Burton, Joseph D. Kelley, intervenor, involves land in 7-151-20, and the action of John M. Grimes against Margaret Price and Mary James involves land in 12-68-21.

---

Dell Sargent Estate.

Oliver E. Stewart, receiver of Dell B. Sargent, filed a summary statement of the condition of the insolvent estate yes-