

PERSONALS.

Edward Field has gone to Minneapolis on business.

Mrs. Samuels of Chicago, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Abrahamson, has returned home.

P. Nester of Baraga, Mich., a prominent lumberman of that place, is in the city.

Mrs. C. M. Vance left yesterday for Minneapolis on a visit to friends.

Mrs. Jenny Brandt left yesterday for the East on a visit to relatives.

Miss Mamie Murphy of Minneapolis and Miss Lizzie Gallagher of Austin are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gallagher.

Miss Mary E. Agnes and Miss Annie Murphy of Ottawa, are visiting friends in Duluth.

George Foley of St. Paul was in the city yesterday.

E. N. Saunders, president of the Northwestern Coal Railway company, was in the city yesterday.

R. H. Swift of Chicago, who has been visiting Charles Ellston, has returned home.

I. N. Chelley, deputy supreme commander for Minnesota, of the Maccabees, has established headquarters at St. Paul where he occupies a fine suite of rooms in the Globe building.

A. R. McGill, for many years a resident of New Duluth, left yesterday for Grand Rapids, Minn., to take the management of the Itasca Mercantile company's store at that place.

A telegram has been received by W. H. Groff, from his son to the effect that he will be home in two or three weeks. He was in the Philippines with the First North Dakota regiment and was sent on to San Francisco on account of illness.

Mrs. Michael Kelley left yesterday for Notre Dame, Ind., with her son Charlie Kenye who will enter the university at Notre Dame.