

urallization. On Tuesday the court will sit at McKinley for the same purpose and on Thursday Judge Ensign will hold a session at Floodwood.

Messrs Walsh, Sanford and Chatman, who are at the head of the cloak, China and lace departments for Pantan & White will go east today on an extended trip to buy goods for the different departments they present of the Big Glass Block store.

A discovery of iron ore is reported from a few miles northeast of Hibbing. The exploration has been made by Archie Chisholm, Captain M. L. Fay and others. The ore is high grade but the extent of the deposit has not been ascertained.

The body of Tim Ryan, who was found dead close to the Duluth & Iron Range tracks near Eleventh avenue east, Friday morning, was placed in the vault at the poor farm yesterday. Undertaker Durkan heard that the man has relatives in Bayfield, Wis., but nothing has yet been heard from them.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Patton of Philadelphia are in the city on a visit to their son W. B. Patton of this city. They came up on the North Land. Mr. Patton made it a point to sound as many of his fellow travelers as possible on their political leaning. He says that he ran across only one Democrat and he was going to vote for McKinley.

The marriage of Miss Agnes M. Rush of Fargo, and John B. Cargill of Duluth, took place in Moorhead Thursday morning, and Mr. Cargill arrived home again Friday. A serious charge was preferred against Mr. Cargill by the parents of Miss Rush and last week he was arrested and taken to Fargo. Before the matter came to trial, however, a satisfactory settlement was effected and the wedding took place as stated.

The moonlight excursion on the steamer Don Voyage under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. last night was a great success, about 200 people taking the trip. The boat went down the lake as far as Lakewood. The weather was ideal, almost. The Y. M. C. A. Mandolin club was on board and enhanced the pleasure of the excursion with music, and the Ladies' auxiliary served ice cream and other light refreshments.

The directors of the St. Louis County Agricultural association have authorized the holding of the annual county fair at Duluth. Secretary Scoville was instructed to proceed with the arrangements. The dates of the fair are Sept. 12, 13 and 14. J. A. Cooley was requested to get together an exhibit from St. Louis county for the state fair. Another meeting of the association will be held soon to make further arrangements regarding the county fair.

Memorial services will be held at the First Baptist church this evening for the Modern Samaritans of the city. The service is in memory of those of the order who have died during the past year. Rev. E. B. Patrick, pastor of the church will give a sermon appropriate to the occasion and there will be special music. The members of the various councils will meet at Elks' hall at 7 o'clock and go from there to the church in a body. John Christy is chairman of the meeting.

Charles R. Black, a colored barber, was arrested and arraigned in police court yesterday afternoon for splitting a heavy two-inch board over the head of Louis Azinsky of No. 129 First avenue west. It is said that the men had been quarreling over their dogs. Detective Troyer arrested Black, and Azinsky, after blinking rather hard for a minute or two, followed behind to tell how it happened. Black pleaded not guilty, and hearing was set for Aug. 2. He was released on $100 bail.

J. Johnson of this city has been given the contract for a handsome new brick hotel at Cass Lake to cost $14,000 by the Cass Lake company. The structure will be two stories high the dimensions being 80x76 feet. It will be complete in all its appointments and modern in every way. The floors will be of hard wood while electrical and various other improvements will make the hostelry one of the best in that section of the state. The hotel will be completed by November 1.

LAKE BREEZES.

Tibbetts, undertaker, 31 East Sup. St.
Dr. Morgan, osteopath, 6-7 Mesaba block.

Mocking birds, fine singers guaranteed, at 109 East Superior street.

Good morning? Have you an order for the Richardson Printing Company?

Itridgeman & Russell will take your butter order in the morning, make and deliver it before supper.

Miss Harriet Nobles will sing two solos at Glen Avon Presbyterian church tonight.

Li Hung Chang has been decapitating numerous nuisances but none of them wore Kelly's hats.

Only one cent each for Hearst's Chicago American at Lundberg & Stone's, 223 West Superior street.

Emperor William admonished the German soldiers to clean out the Chinese. He might have added—as thoroughly as Kelly cleans clothes.

The fire department was called out about 9:20 last night to extinguish a small fire in a lath pile on lower Garfield avenue. The damage was slight.

The remains of Frank T. Anderson, the bartender whose death occurred Thursday night by an overdose of opium, were shipped to his home at Omo, Wis.

S. W. Huntington of the new store and Mr. C. S. Nixon one of the buyers left last evening on the 11:15 train for the eastern markets, also to buy fall goods. He will be away several weeks.

On Friday evening Circles No. 2 and 5, of the St. Paul's church will give a moonlight excursion on the steamer Sult. Refreshments will be served and there will be music.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First M. E. church will give an excursion to Fond du Lac Tuesday. The steamer Carrington will leave at 10 a. m., and luncheon will be served by the ladies.

Henry Yates has commenced suit in the district court to foreclose a mechanic's lien for $290.45 and interest from June 17, 1900, against Jane Duren and George Duren, for work performed on a residence on lot 151, block 28, Rice's Point.

Judge Cant leaves tomorrow for Mesaba at which place a session of the district court will be held for the purpose of granting second papers of nat-