

PERSONALS.

C. E. Seelye of Bena was in the city yesterday.

J. H. Whalen went to Waukesha, Wis., yesterday.

Miss Turnbull leaves today for North Yakima, Wash.

John B. Gordon, of Marquette, Mich., is in the city.

Albert Johnson, of Red Wing, is a Zenith City guest.

H. M. Smith, of Toledo, O., was at the Spalding yesterday.

C. R. Mills of Shell Lake was a guest at the St. Louis yesterday.

M. S. Hawkins came down from Mountain Iron yesterday.

W. G. Boggs, of Sheboygan, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Sol Zandlowitz of New Hampton, Ia., is a guest of J. D. Zien.

O. C. Hartman left yesterday afternoon for a short fishing trip.

Miss Anna Shepherd left last night on the Omaha for Owosso, Mich.

Manager Baird of the Spalding has returned from his visit in Chicago.

R. M. Bennett, of Minneapolis, was registered at the Spalding yesterday.

Mrs. Victor Johnson returned from an extended Chicago visit yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Coats of Virginia were Duluth guests yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Crawford leave today for a visit in San Francisco.

Mrs. A. D. Davidson and Miss Davidson leave today for a European trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cook left yesterday morning for a visit to the Pacific coast.

R. D. and Harry Annis are spending a few days at Deerwood in pursuit of the bnyy tribe.

Mr. Fred Miller and sister have returned from a three months' trip through the west.

P. H. Heard, traveling passenger and freight agent of the Chicago and Great Western railway, was in the city yesterday.

A. W. Hepworth, of Davidson & McKee, will leave Thursday for Europe and the Paris exposition. He will meet Mrs. and Miss Davidson in New York and accompany them across.

A. Murphy expects to leave next week for an extended European tour. Among the points he has mapped out to visit, in addition to his old home in Ireland, are Paris, Berlin, Oberammergau, Rome and Naples. He will sail on the Oceanic from New York.