

Zionist Congress in London.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—The International Congress of Zionists will open here tomorrow with delegates present from all over the world. President Richard Gotthell, of Columbia university; Stephen S. Wise, of Portland Ore.; Dr. S. Schaffer, of Baltimore, and the Rev. Dr. B. Felesenthal, of Chicago, are the American delegates who will be in attendance. The first session of the congress will be devoted to business reports and discussion on "The General Position of the Jews." This will be followed by discussions each day of matters which particularly interest the Zionists.
