

LAKE BREEZES.

North Land Printery, Torrey bldg.
Volland's Hat Factory, 14 1st Ave. E.
Kelly's Dye Works for sick clothes.
Tibbetts, undertaker, 31 E. Sup. St.
Ask your grocer for Primus Creamery butter, a home product. Buy no other. Manufactured by Bridgeman & Russell.

Congressman Morris is making preparations to go down the north shore on a fishing trip. He had intended going this week, but he says he shall abandon the trip if the weather continues as cold as of late. Judge Morris expects to make two fishing trips down the north shore this season.

The annual meeting of the Women's Book club will be held Monday at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. A. McGonagle. All books must be returned at or before that time.

The last meeting of the Philanthropic department of the Twentieth Century club will be held in the club rooms Tuesday at 3 o'clock. Mrs. W. S. Davy, leader. The subject will be: "Expositions and their value."

Austin Terryberry has returned from Red Lake Indian reservation, where he has been superintending the government school building. He has opened an architect's office in the Palladio building.

Paving Superior street means much to us, for we will then see a blue streak of Tribune wheels passing by where all can see them.

During his temporary absence abroad Dr. McComb's offices will be occupied by Dr. J. A. McCuen.

Joel Colby died at his residence at Colbyville, Saturday morning. Funeral services will be held Sunday at 2 p. m.

The women's alliance of the First Unitarian church will meet Wednesday at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. A. L. Agatlin.

Many of our people are getting ready to go to Park Point for the summer. The Northern Hdw. Co. claim many sales in Blue Flame Wickless oil stoves.

J. Hammel & Co. have the exclusive sale of Studebaker wagons and carriages.

Girls have been born to Mr. and Mrs. W. Beatty, 317 Seventh avenue East; Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Johanson, 1822 West Second street.

The meeting of the county teachers' reading circle yesterday afternoon was quite largely attended. Miss Smith presided and papers were read by Miss Blackwood, Stanislaus Mackintowski, Miss Sumnerville and Miss Gear. The next meeting of the teachers will be held May 25th the feature of which will be a lecture on Arithmetic by L. V. Hopkins. C. A. Lanigan will preside at that time.

Five deaths were reported at the health office yesterday. Joel Colby, aged 78 years, who had lived in the city about 15 years, died at Colbyville of senility. His remains will be shipped to Bingham, Me., his former home, for interment. Mrs. Lena Karon, aged 67, died at her home, 13 West Third street, from the effects of an abscess. Interment was made in the Hebrew cemetery. Charles Kinsle, aged 23, died at St. Mary's hospital of tuberculosis. The remains have been forwarded to Minneapolis for interment. Hattie Swanson, the 8-year old daughter of D. Swanson, died at St. Mary's hospital of pernicious anaemia. Interment at Greenwood cemetery. William Mattison, the 2-year old son of M. Mattison, died Thursday of diphtheria. Interment was made in the Finland cemetery.

Alex Eager, formerly an employe of Haley's restaurant, was arrested yesterday afternoon charged with stealing several pairs of overalls from E. Abelson's clothing store. He will be arraigned in court Monday.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead who never to himself has said, this is my own, my native land, and Kelly cleans my Hats.

Emperor William has been walking on French territory recently. That's nothing. People walk into Kelly's every day and get their clothing French dry cleaned.

There was a slight disagreement between the Electrical Workers' union and one of the shops in the city during the week, but at a meeting of the contractors and the men last night the matter was settled for the present.

An Associated Press dispatch from St. Paul last night contained the following: "County Auditor O. O. Halden, of St. Louis county, a candidate for state auditor, was at the capitol today. The burning question in his section is to find the best method of taxing mining properties. Mr. Halden favors a tax based upon the tonnage of the ore mined."

Mrs. Armstrong, wife of George S. Armstrong, of 512 West Third street, died yesterday of consumption. She was 47 years of age and leaves a husband and one daughter. Two years ago her son Floyd was killed as a result of a fall at the Spalding. The decedent was a member of the Degree of Honor, and Garfield Circle. Mr. Armstrong is a member of the railway mail service and runs between Duluth and Minneapolis on the Eastern Minnesota.

Thomas Brotherton, of West Duluth had his leg broken last evening while trying to board a street car. Brotherton was near Seventh avenue, West when he saw a West Duluth car approaching. He ran into the street and in attempting to get on, was thrown violently to the ground. Brotherton broke his leg last winter and the fracture last night was in the same place. Besides the injury to his leg, the young man received a number of bad bruises including a severe one on his left arm. In falling, Brotherton's gold watch dropped out of his pocket and could not be found. The injured man was taken to St. Mary's hospital, from which place he was released but three weeks ago.