

Mail Order Department and Directory.

Advertisers of the News Tribune, whose names are given below, are giving special attention to mail orders and will give careful and prompt consideration to communications received from out-of-town people desiring to purchase or inquire about goods.

The good faith and standing of the dealers named herewith, are unquestioned, and the News Tribune takes pleasure in further endorsing them.

In ordering by mail, care should be taken to make plain the address to which goods are to be sent. Money orders afford the safest way to transfer payment for goods. Letters containing money, checks or money orders, should be registered.

Following are the names of the advertisers conducting mail order departments in connection with their businesses:

Remember the Second Issue of 25,000 Shares of the stock of the Mountaineer Oil Co.

WILL BE PLACED ON THE MARKET TODAY

At 7½ Cents per Share.

The lively interest taken in the Kentucky Oil Fields will insure a ready sale for this stock. Get your orders in early. The demand for these Kentucky oil stocks already has exceeded any stock placed on this market. The reason for this is the fair basis of organization, the striking of oil on the Blue Grass property, and the character of the men managing these oil enterprises. Daniel Boone Oil Co. was organized Tuesday evening and Wednesday noon, without any charter issued (only trustees' receipts instead of certificates) the first issue of stock was over-subscribed and the second issue at a fifty per cent advance has about all been taken.

Remember, the money received from this stock goes toward drilling wells and the necessary expenses of the company. No officers' salaries paid. The stock is non-assessable and is full paid up with no personal liability. Make all remittances payable to
