

LAKE BREEZES.

Drink Weiss Beer.

Kelly's hat hospital for sick hats.

North Land Printery, Torrey bldg.

Volland's Hat Factory, 14 1st Ave. E.

Sarah J. Bennett has commenced suit for divorce from W. E. Bennett on the ground of desertion.

The name of the play in which Miss Adelaide Thurston will star this season is "Sweet Clover."

Strictly fresh home grown cut flowers at a bargain. Eischen Bros., leading florists, 129 West Superior street.

If you have a big fish story and must tell it, go to J. J. Wall's map room and point out the bottle ground on his maps.

Mr. Phil Bevis, the new secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will address the men's meeting at 18 East Superior street tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Subject, "An Open Door."

Suit has been commenced by the Farmers' Trust company to foreclose a mortgage on lands in section 22-50-14, given by Harriet W. Haynes to secure a note for $6,000.

Louis Hanson and O. L. Johnson, two draymen, who spent the afternoon in "loading up" themselves instead of their drays, were arrested last night and locked for drunkenness. Hanson had nearly $400 in his possession.

Patrolman Wilcox is laid up with a sore foot. Last night he made a long range kick at a yowling dog and the latter showed his surprise by burying his teeth in the policeman's leg. The wound is not a serious one, but painful. The dog escaped.

Sons have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. , 219 West Third street; Mr. and Mrs. Simon Sher, 405 St. Croix avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Tarnowski, 14 East Eighth street; Mr. and Mrs. James H. McCullough, Duluth Heights.

Articles of incorporation of the Donora Mining company were filed with the register of deeds yesterday. The capital stock is $500,000 and the incorporators are W. Elder, A. Howell and M. C. Mackinnon.

C. W. Wilson, of the fire department, accompanied by his wife, will leave today on his annual vacation. They will go by rail from here to Iowa, and from some point to be determined on, will start on a tour of the principal towns of that state on their wheels. They will make a trip of about 500 miles in this way.

Miss Lucinda Smith, for a number of years a member of the family of Bertah Magoffin, died at St. Mary's hospital yesterday of a cerebral hemorrhage. She was 44 years of age. The funeral will be held in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment will be made in Forest Hill cemetery.

Paul Quandt, aged 30 years, son of Frederick Quandt, died at the family residence, 416 Second avenue East, last evening, of dropsy. Mr. Quandt, who was employed as a confectioner at the Bon Ton Bakery, was a popular young man, and his death will be a great shock to his friends. He was unmarried.

Charles Edgar, of Iron River, has purchased the residence occupied by H. F. Marshall at 2104 East Superior street, from Alfred E. McCordick, of Chicago. The consideration was $8,000 and the deal was negotiated through John A. Stephenson. Mr. Edgar is associated with Alexander Edgar & Co., a lumber firm, and intends to occupy the house.

E. D. Brown, formerly of Duluth, now of Toronto, arrived in the city yesterday on a visit to his brother, John G. Brown. He came up by rail, but says that he shall probably return by boat. Mr. Brown has not been in Duluth for nearly two years and was given a hearty reception by his friends as fast as he encountered them.

Frank B. Smith, the druggist, received a letter from Dr. McComb yesterday, dated Honolulu, May 27. The letter was written on the steamer Copitic and the doctor dilates on the beautiful climate and the exotic bloom of the Hawaiian city. He is en route to Japan.

Senator E. B. Hawkins, of Biwabik, was in the city yesterday and says that work on the Drake & Stratton stripping contract is progressing favorably. Another steam shovel will be put at work at the Stevenson mine near Hibbing next Tuesday, making three in all on that property. The Stevenson is rapidly developing into one of the biggest mines on the Mesaba range.

Janet Smith, the little 3-year old daughter of Mrs. J. Smith, 219 West Third street, disappeared about 8 o'clock last evening and was not found until about midnight. Her mother and the neighborhood spent all the evening looking for the child and a policeman finally found her near the incline, quite unconcerned. She is an unusually reserved little thing and whatever her plight would not cry or attract attention.

A piano and organ recital will be given by Professor A. F. Lundholm's pupils, assisted by the Echo Quartette, at Columbia hall, Twentieth avenue West and Superior street, Friday evening, June 21st, 8 o'clock p. m. The following pupils will participate in the program: Lillie Larson, Florence Nelson, Viola Helm, Pearly Ellinger, Ella Johnson, Irene Sibbald, Arthur Sundeen, Inez Turquist, Edna Bergquist, Mrs. C. F. Edwards, Henry Anderson, Bertha Melander, Selma Sundberg, Arthur Johnson, Ruth Hanson, Pearl Hanson, Alma Peterson, Hazel Nelson, Fred Beckmann, John Engleheart, Annie Engleheart, Ester Anderson, Emma Schiltz, Etta Trivaranus, Lydia Trivaranus, Laura Trivaranus, Mary Dahl, Nora Callahn, and Ida Horeland.

W. F. Street, district attorney of Beltrami county, and the representative of the townsite company at Bemidji, was in the city last evening on his way home from a business trip to the Twin Cities. He says that Bemidji is growing and prosperous, and has the most cosmopolitan population of any town of its size in the world.

County Superintendent of Schools, A. T. Park, announces that the teachers' meeting scheduled for this morning at the High school, has been indefinitely postponed.