

West Duluth In Brief.

Miss Addie Omo, of Racine, Wis., is the guest of West Duluth friends.

A son was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. Chris Burke, Wadena street. Mr. and Mrs. George C. O'Brien, Fifty-second avenue West are the parents of a son. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Anderson, Forty-eighth avenue West and Magellan street, also had a son born to them.

Oliver Dewara will leave for Butte, Mont., soon, where he will enter the employ of the Northern Pacific railway company.

Among the West Duluth residents who are planning to make a trip to the Pacific coast are Joseph McDougall and Daniel Bellemuer.

The family of L. S. Neumann, of the firm of Kastriner & Neumann, have arrived from Eveleth, but Mr. Neumann will not come down for about two weeks yet, being detained there to close up some of the affairs connected with the branch store formerly conducted at that place by the firm.

Girl wanted at once to work in kitchen at Randall Hotel, West Duluth.
