

SERMONS FOR GRADUATES

BACCALAUREATE SERVICES HELD FOR TWO SETS OF SENIORS.

NORMAL CLASS IS LARGE

REV. W. J. PATTON'S ADDRESS IS ELOQUENT.

Rev. F. K. Howard Talks to Combined Classes of Nelson Dewey and Blaine High Schools.

Two baccalaureate sermons were preached yesterday to two graduating classes of Superior schools, one at the East End, and the other at the West End.

The large Normal senior class gathered in the morning to hear the sermon of Rev. W. J. Patton of the Cumming avenue Methodist church, who spoke eloquently upon the subject, "Kings and Queens." His sermon was a plea to the graduates to make the most of life, and to prove themselves kings and queens in the truest sense of the word.

Rev. F. K. Howard, of the Church of the Redeemer of the East End, delivered the baccalaureate sermon to the combined graduating class of the Blaine and Nelson Dewey high schools.

He spoke of the opportunities of the present day, and of the increased responsibilities attendant upon larger opportunities, declaring that intellect was not all in life; that the fear of God was yet higher. Large audiences were present at both services.

Following are the names of the class members:
