

Company 1 Thursday evening, left for Hudson yesterday morning, where he will perform a similar duty for the company stationed there.

E. W. Walker and C. A. Donnelly, of the Normal, have gone to Pratt, where they will try their luck trout fishing.

Miss Addie E. Bettis and Miss A. Kromer, critic teachers in the normal, left last evening for Grand Rapids, Mich., where they will spend their vacation at home.

Rev. A. Sher, of Ashland, returned home yesterday after a week's visit with his brother, M. M. Sher, of this city.

Ness Wilcox, Roy Wilcox and Miss Mary McDonough, of Eau Claire, will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. John McDonough, of Loring Terrace, during the coming week.

Rev. C. J. McConnell, recently of Bessemer, Mich., has accepted the pastorate of the East End Presbyterian church, the call having been extended to him some time ago. He will take charge in about a week.

Miss Nell Siegel, of Eveleth, has returned home after a short visit with the Misses Helen and Edith Karon, of John avenue.

R. H. Titus, one of the Superior boys who has been in attendance at the state university, has accepted a position for the vacation period with a Boston firm.

Henry C. Sloan, of Appleton, was a guest in the city yesterday. He formerly resided in Superior and was assemblyman from this county.

William J. Crumpton and D. Clough Gates, of Central Park, returned yesterday from Madison, where they have been attending the state university.

Mrs. T. A. Conway and Miss Florence Conway, of Ashland, are visiting with Mrs. J. P. McKenna, at 1422 Broadway.

Rev. J. Osborn, of San Jose, Cal., is in the city, the guest of J. Anderson. Rev. Osborn was one of the first ministers who ever preached in West Superior.

The funeral of Philip Bergstrom, of 1315 Third street, will occur tomorrow afternoon. Interment will be in the Scandinavian cemetery.

Announcements have been received of the marriage of C. L. Smith, formerly ticket agent of the Omaha in Superior, to Miss Etta Mae Carr, of Cassopolis, Mich. The wedding took place June 17.

SUPERIOR PERSONALS.

Delano Smith is at Deerwood.

A. B. Ross and wife are spending a few days at Deerwood.

A permit was issued yesterday to J. A. Duffy by the engineer's department to build a residence at 728 John street at a cost of $1,000.

St. John's day, next Tuesday, will not be celebrated this year by local Masons.

The Svea Glee club will give its first excursion and picnic to Fond du Lac tomorrow. Two special trains will go up, one at 9:30 and the other at 2:30.

Miss A. E. Grady, supervisor of drawing in the city schools, left last evening for Chicago and the east for her vacation.

Miss E. E. Brown, of the Blaine high school, left for Chicago last evening, to attend the University of Chicago. Henry Schwarn, of the Nelson Dewey, will also take a course in the Rockefeller institution.

Miss McKay, of the public schools, has gone to her home in Fort Wayne, where she will spend her vacation.

R. I. Tipton, is entertaining a brother from Armour, S. D.

Maj. J. M. Ballard, who inspected