B. J. Cook Returns From Successful Purchasing Trip.

B. J. Cook of the Eagle Clothing company returned yesterday from the eastern markets where he has secured some genuine values in the clothing and furnishing line.

Mr. Cook says that business in Chicago is better now than it has been for years and that the manufacturers are overwhelmed with orders, but he says he was fortunate in buying on account of having spoken for some special lots before leaving for the east. These were lines that came in late, and therefore he was enabled to buy a number of different stocks at greatly reduced prices which in all has given him the opportunity to have purchased a large line of clothing. The goods purchased by Mr. Cook are all of the very latest styles and fabrics.

The phenomenal trade at the Eagle Clothing company this spring has made this trip necessary.
